VOICE OF INDUSTRY.

THURSDAY, JULY 24, 1845.

Agreeably to our notice last week, we publish this day the first number of the Lowell Journal, from the pen of Mr. Samuel W. Low, the able and eloquent advocate of the cause of the workingmen and the reformers in general. We are happy to find that he has returned to his old profession, and that his talent and zeal have not been impaired by the long absence from the press. We shall be glad to see his labors in this new field.

The Lowell Journal is a weekly newspaper, and is to be published every Thursday. It is to be read by all who are interested in the welfare of the workingmen, and by all who are interested in the welfare of the country.

The following are the contents of the first number:

2. The Lowell Journal.
5. The Lowell Journal.
8. The Lowell Journal.

We are pleased to see that the Lowell Journal is well started, and that it is likely to be a valuable addition to the literature of the country.
VOICE OF INDUSTRY.

VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS.

PHOENIX BITTERS.

THURSDAY MESSENGER.

A WEEKLY MESSENGER.

Published every Thursday with the exception of holidays.

DEADIES

VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS

PHOENIX BITTERS.

POWDER HANGINGS.

SOME THINGS NEW.

SOME THINGS NEW.

PAPER HANGINGS.