RAFFLE

Mr. Joseph Jennings respectfully informs his friends and the public that, at the request of many acquaintances, he has been induced to purchase from Mr. Osborne, of Missouri, the celebrated

DARK BAY HORSE, "STAR,"

Aged five years, square trotter and warranted sound; with a new light Trotting Buggy and Harness also, the dark, stout

MULATTO GIRL, "SARAH,"

Aged about twenty years, general house servant, valued at nine hundred dollars, and guaranteed, and

Will be Ruffled for

At 4 o'clock P. M., February first, at the selection hotel of the subscribers. The above is as represented and those persons who may wish to engage in the usual practice of raffling, will, I assure them, be perfectly satisfied with their destiny in this affair.

The whole is valued at its just worth, fifteen hundred dollars; fifteen hundred

CHANCES AT ONE DOLLAR EACH.

The Raffle will be conducted by gentlemen selected by the interested subscribers present. Five nights will be allowed to complete the Raffle. BOTH OF THE ABOVE DESCRIBED CAN BE SEEN AT MY STORE, No. 78 Common St., second door from Camp, at from 9 o'clock A. M. to 2 P. M.

Highest throw to take the first choice; the lowest throw the remaining prize, and the fortunate winners will pay twenty dollars each for the refreshments furnished on the occasion.

N. B. No chances recognized unless paid for previous to the commencement.

RUNAWAYS

ONE Hundred Dollars reward.—Runaway from the subscribers, on the night of the 5th inst., two negro men, named Riley and Dan. Riley is a very bright mulatto, 18 or 19 years old, 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, and has on his right side a very large scar, the effect of a burn in boyhood; had on when he left a soldier's cap, and either a dark frock coat or gray sack, and carried with him a black oil cloth satchel and a red checked counterpane; would pass for a white man in any crowd. He is in all probability making his way back to Kentucky, where he was purchased about a year ago. Dan is black, 24 or 25 years old, 5 feet 8 or 4 inches high, stout built, short hair and short whiskers; had on when he left a new suit of black jeans, and may follow Riley in the direction of Kentucky, or may have induced Riley to follow him to the county of Hanover, where he has a wife—in either case, trying to make their way to the Yankee lines. The above reward will be paid for their arrest and confinement, or $50 will be paid for either of them.

IF you can't be a pine on the top of the hill
Be a scrub in the valley—but be
The best little scrub by the side of the rill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.

If you can't be a bush be a bit of the grass,
And some highway some happier make;
If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass—
But the liveliest bass in the lake!

We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,
There's something for all of us here.
There's big work to do and there's lesser to do,
And the task we must do is the near.

If you can't be a highway then just be a trail,
If you can't be the sun be a star;
It isn't by size that you win or you tail—
Be the best of whatever you are!

POVERTY

Poverty pains the heart too much. Poverty makes one to look weak and ugly, and fades one's personality. Poverty makes one to be inactive and to talk less. Poverty reduces one's power and makes one to walk and appear as a sick person sometimes.

Poverty makes one to be popular in his community because he has no means to "advertise" himself. A poor man dies un-noticed because not many people know him, but when a rich man becomes mere sick, radios, newspapers and other information organs will report it with sensational headlines.

A poor man thinks every now and then. He is not happy. Himself and his family are not enjoying life. They buy and use secondhand dresses and shoes. A soup cooked with 2s lasts one week for the poor man and his family.

A poor man wears 'Patch—Patch' dresses not because he does not know that it is not all that good, but because he cannot afford to buy new clothes.

A poor man suffers inferiority complex. He cannot be offered an honourable seat at an occasion.

A poor man receives insults even from his very relatives because people respect the money and not the person.

The poor man thinks more of his daily bread but the rich man thinks more of his thousands of pounds and another profitable business to establish.

The poor man lives in a small unfurnished room because he cannot pay for a decent spacious room.

The poor man knows nice things but his condition has forced him to ignore those things.

The poor man very hardly pay his tax, rate, or levy from his church or town. A poor man opposes any expenses which may call for new donations or levy in his association because he cannot donate or simply pay his own levy.

When a poor man's wife delivers, he will be partly happy and sad. He is happy because his wife delivered. On the other hand, he is sad because he has no money to meet up with the hospital or maternity bills, and the maintenance of the child and the wife.

A poor man shakes his head when he sees his juniors or age grades enjoying life. He asks himself "What type of world do I come?"

In short a poor man live a poor life, and suffers many things and in fact, the poverty pains the heart too much.

"It appears from the report of the proceedings at Marlborough Street Police Court in our columns of yesterday, that there is an average number of 50 human beings of all ages, who huddle together in the parks every night, having no other shelter than what is supplied by the trees and a few hollows of the embankment. Of these, the majority are young girls who have been seduced from the country by the soldiers and turned loose on the world in all the destitution of friendless penury, and all the recklessness of early vice.

"This is truly horrible! Poor there must be everywhere. Indigence will find its way and set up its hideous state in the heart of a great and luxurious city. Amid the thousand narrow lanes and by-streets of a populous metropolis there must always, we fear, be much suffering—much that offends the eye—much that lurks unseen.

"But that within the precincts of wealth, gaiety, and fashion, nigh the regal grandeur of St. James, close on the palatial splendour of Bayswater, on the confines of the old and new aristocratic quarters, in a district where the cautious refinement of modern design has refrained from creating one single tenement for poverty; which seems, as it were, dedicated to the exclusive enjoyment of wealth, that there want, and famine, and disease, and vice should stalk in all their kindred horrors, consuming body by body, soul by soul!

"It is indeed a monstrous state of things! Enjoyment the most absolute, that bodily ease, intellectual excitement, or the more innocent pleasures of sense can supply to man's craving, brought in close contact with the most unmitigated misery! Wealth, from its bright saloons, laughing—an insolently heedless laugh—at the unknown wounds of want! Pleasure, cruelly but unconsciously mocking the pain that moans below! All contrary things mocking one another—all contrary, save the vice which tempts and the vice which is tempted!

"But let all men remember this—that within the most courtly precincts of the richest city of God's earth, there may be found, night after night, winter after winter, women—young in years—old in sin and suffering—outcasts from society—ROTTING FROM FAMINE, FILTH, AND DISEASE. Let them remember this, and learn not to theorise but to act. God knows, there is much room for action nowadays."¹

I have referred to the refuges for the homeless. How greatly overcrowded these are, two examples may show. A newly erected Refuge for the Houseless in Upper Ogle Street, that can shelter three hundred persons every night, has received since its opening, January 27th to March 17th, 1844, 2,740 persons for one or more nights; and, although the season was growing more

THE AFTER-THEATER SUPPER AND THE BREAD-LINE

Look on this picture and then on that.

Perhaps you are going to say, "It's a far cry from the after-theater supper to the bread-line."

It may not be so far, after all. The after-theater supper in a fashionable restaurant is an expensive habit. It is indulged in by some rich people, but by more who are really poor and merely aping the ways of the rich.

Notwithstanding the fact that he pays an exorbitant price for seats at the theater, many a young city fellow who can ill afford to spend the money feels that he must "do it up right" by taking the lady in a carriage or taxicab

PRODUCTION OF SURPLUS VALUE

Now suppose that the average amount of the daily necessities of a labouring man require six hours of average labour for their production. Suppose, moreover, six hours of average labour to be also realised in a quantity of gold equal to 3s. Then 3s. would be the Price, or the monetary expression of the Daily Value of that man's Labouring Power. If he worked daily six hours he would daily produce a value sufficient to buy the average amount of his daily necessities, or to maintain himself as a labouring man.

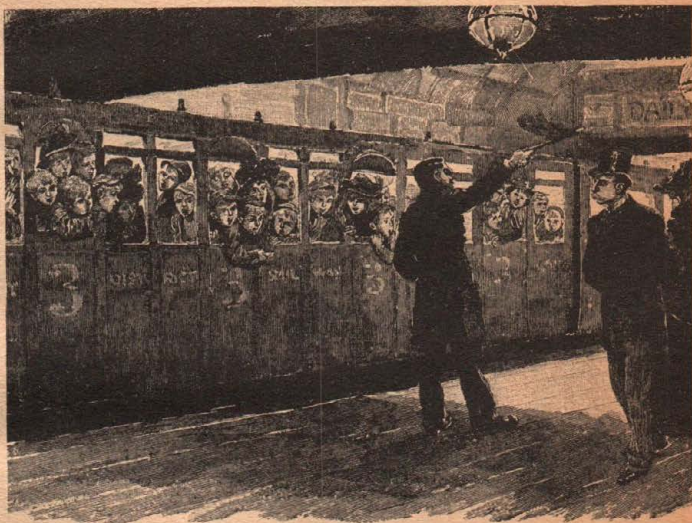

But our man is a wages labourer. He must, therefore, sell his labouring power to a capitalist. If he sells it at 3s. daily, or 18s. weekly, he sells it at its value. Suppose him to be a spinner. If he works six hours daily he will add to the cotton a value of 3s. daily. This value, daily added by him, would be an exact equivalent for the wages, or the price of his labouring power, received daily. But in that case no surplus value or surplus produce whatever would go to the capitalist. Here, then, we come to the rub.

In buying the labouring power of the workman, and paying its value, the capitalist, like every other purchaser, has acquired the right to consume or use the commodity bought. You consume or use the labouring power of a man by making him work, as you consume or use a machine by making it run. By paying the daily or weekly value of the labouring power of the workman, the capitalist has, therefore, acquired the right to use or make that labouring power work during the whole day or week.

CAN'T EAT FLAG SO IT GOES TO PAWNSHOP

OKLAHOMA CITY—The depression is endangering patriotism. Here this week "there breathed a man with soul so dead," or with stomach so empty, that he gave a silk American flag for $2 to a pawnbroker.

Proprietors said during the past few months persons have pawned dogs, false teeth and almost every other possession imaginable, but this was the first flag.

Stanley Fox

Even during the years when urban prosperity seemed to be at its peak, hundreds of citizens depended for their livelihood upon pickings from the refuse in the city dumps. These scavengers at the foot of Beach Street are collecting rags to sell at a fraction of a cent per pound.

UNEMPLOYED WORKERS SELLING APPLES. This was a typical scene in big cities such as New York during the Great Depression. Unemployment in the U.S. reached its highest point in 1933, when 12.8 million workers, or 24.9% of the civilian labor force, were without jobs.

BROWN BROS.

They Lose More Than Jobs?

Geneva, Nov. 28 (Reuters)—Loss of employment can cause men to become sexually impotent, British psychiatric social worker Eugene Heimler said here today.

The resulting marital failure often made the unemployed man so lethargic he could not take advantage of opportunities of retraining for another job, Heimler told the first international conference on community psychiatry.

He said his investigations in Britain showed that when men lost their jobs through automation or other causes "they often began to have serious sexual difficulties in a hitherto normal marriage."

"That changes in society could penetrate into the private areas of people's lives to the extent that a vicious circle of impotence could be created in more than one area of life was tragically illuminating," he said.

A RESPECTABLE COLORED WOMAN WISHES TO take ladies' and gentlemen's washing large and small prices at five shillings per dozen, at 88 Mott st., Workingmen's
Home, third floor, room 41.

In this connection, the following definition of loyalty, as prepared long ago by Elbert Hubbard, is of special interest:

"If you work for a man, in Heaven's name work for him. If he pays you wages which supply your bread and butter, work for him—speak well of him—stand by him, and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn, and eternally disparage, resign your position and when you are outside, condemn to your heart's content—but, as long as you are part of an institution, do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why."

Even Poetry

There is one more here I would like to read:
This is in the form of a poem. It was submitted by a forge employee.

"Dear Mr. General Motors Corporation:

*You ask from me why I like job,
But first by you I tell,
That once I live in Italy,
And go through plenty hell.*

*I better here than when I there,
For now I'm happy guy,
I damn glad I American,
And I explain you why.*

*I make for me no money,
While in Italy I work,
You see my wife she starving, and
For that my heart she's hurt.*

*By boat I take my Rosa,
She my wife, to U.S.A.,
I get myself job pretty quick,
In shop by Chevrolet.*

*I glad I take my Rosa,
To America with me,
To hell with foreign isms, now,
We're here where men are free.*

*I like my job, I like my boss,
He show me how to do,
He say, Now Tony, you good man,
I give more jack by you.*

*You ask for why I like my job?
Why not? I no damn fool.
I buy a house, I buy a car,
My kid she go to school.*

*They no do that in Italy,
In Russia, France or Greece.
The poor they work and live in huts,
Like flocks of foolish geese.*

*This job of mine she keep me warm,
With coal it helps me buy.
It buy me good insurance for
My family when I die.*

*I got for house a Frigidaire,
A vacuum cleaner too,
My Rosa she got wash machine,
Like millionaires all do.*

*I buy from Mr. Delco man,
A music box to play.
I live like Harry Truman,
Since I work by Chevrolet.*

*You bet your life I like my job,
I think she pretty fine.
The guy who say they no agree,
Make trouble all the time.*

*I take off hat to Chevrolet,
I think she swell, by gee,
So now I stop and say goodbye,
To Mr. G. M. C."*

DOVER IS HOME

to so many Irish girls.

WHY NOT JOIN THEM ?

The Matron of Buckland Hospital, Dover, Miss C. M. Lloyd, will be staying at GRAND HOTEL, TELLING STREET, SLIGO,
ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 12th

and will be available for personal interviews between 12 NOON — 6 P.M.

Miss Lloyd will be very pleased to discuss with young ladies who are nearly 18 or over, of a good standard of education, the opportunities for nurse training at Dover. In recent years over a quarter of a million pounds have been spent on new buildings and equipment for this busy general hospital.

The wards are intimate and friendly, looking directly on to the rose garden or the ornamental pool. There is entertainment inside and outside the hospital. Dover has the sea in front and the country behind; London is easily reached. As the nearest point of England to Europe, its port is generally rated the busiest in the country.

Theatre visits, tennis, dancing, swimming, walking and fishing are just a few of the activities arranged.

Each student nurse has her own bedroom and we try to decorate them individually. BUCKLAND HOSPITAL and Dover itself are full of colour. Add your own touch of colour to this scene. If you cannot attend for interview, why not drop Matron a line at BUCKLAND HOSPITAL, DOVER, KENT, ENGLAND.

Do you have what it takes to join The Underground?

If you really know what the Underground is all about; if you're adult, literate and adventurous; then keep reading. Grove Press and Evergreen invite you to join the only club of its kind for people like you.

As you know, the literary scene has never been the same since 1959, when Grove published the first American edition of Lady Chatterley's Lover. A year later, we made it possible for you to read Henry Miller's classic Tropic of Cancer without traveling to Paris.

Before, after and in between, Grove continued to offer the new generation of new writers here and abroad a forum for their work.

Writers such as Samuel Beckett, Harold Pinter, Brendan Behan, Alain Robbe-Grillet. Books such as William Burroughs' Naked Lunch; Robert Gover's $100 Misunderstanding; John Rechy's City of Night.

Grove's growth kept pace with a new generation of readers, and at the same time freed a new band of contemporary writers. Both groups began turning to us in large numbers, and out of a need to provide a forum for these emerging writers, we created a new magazine, Evergreen Review.

From the start, Evergreen was bold, provocative, and pioneering. It was also consistently a leader in introducing the freshest, most exciting writers of the post-war period. And still is.

Evergreen provides a platform for the best of the new writing and art—and has enlarged the audience for it. That's why we're making it practically painless for you to get Evergreen.

If you agree to subscribe to Evergreen at the regular subscription price of $5.00, we'll make you a present of any one of eight exceptional books in their original Grove Press cloth editions.

Select any of these books free! My Secret Life, the remarkable, erotic Victorian autobiography, complete, unabridged, all 2,432 pages and 11 volumes, in one giant 9¾ by 13-inch boxed paperback. Or you may choose the great best-seller, Games People Play by Dr. Eric Berne, the psychiatrist who brilliantly exposes more than 100 secret "games" like Rapo, Kick Me, and Schlemel.

Another free choice is the first complete American edition of The 120 Days of Sodom by The Marquis de Sade, a work many consider to be Sade's masterpiece, together with a wide choice of his other writings, in a large-format volume. Or select The Olympia Reader, an illustrated anthology of the best from Paris' famed Olympia Press—with special emphasis on material never before published in the U.S.

The fifth choice is Story of O, Pauline Reage's novel that's possibly the most famous underground classic of the 20th century. Or pick a dual selection—Harriet Marwood, Governess, the story of the "education" of a young man by his Victorian governess, and Some Limericks by Norman Douglas, an anthology of bawdy, hilarious limericks—which counts as a single choice. Finally, you may choose Aubrey Beardsley: Selected Drawings, a glorious new collection of rare drawings, including the famous suppressed Lysistrata series, by one of the greatest decadents of the nineties.

These are books that the big, best-seller-oriented book clubs don't offer to their mass membership, books like those published by Grove Press and made available by Evergreen Club in the past few months.

Each month our editors will select a book they feel is worth owning and reading, and we'll send you a monthly news bulletin telling you about the book.

If you want the book you don't have to do anything. If you don't, just send back the self-addressed card that will be included.

But remember, you don't have to buy any of them, as long as you live.

How can you lose?

Fill out the coupon now, and welcome to the Underground.

PRAYER BEFORE ENGAGING A SERVANT

I ASK, Lord, for the light to make the proper decision in this interview which is about to take place. Keep clearly before my mind the fact that I am dealing with a human soul and not merely with so much potential working material. Let me remember that here is a person to whom my authority is going to be either a help or a hindrance. In other words I must not consider my own advantage only, but must see the possible engagement from the other's point of view. Lord, You have attached dignity to service. You have also sanctified authority. In the blending of the two, then, let there be no blundering on our side. Grant that the outcome may be to Your honour.

PRAYER BEFORE DISMISSING A SERVANT

I PRAY, Lord, that I may behave in this matter with fairness and straightforwardness. I shall have to give reasons for my decision: let them be true ones. I shall probably be giving pain: let me do so reluctantly and with gentleness. I may find myself contradicted and getting exasperated: let me keep control of my temper. If I am doing what I believe to be right, I need not be afraid of sticking unswervingly to the line proposed. And if I shrink from the interview from purely human motives—because I dread any kind of scene—then the more I refer the whole thing to You the better. Once I acknowledge that all authority comes from You, my safest course is to ask You, as I am doing, how to handle it. I enjoy the privilege of being able to share my responsibility with You.

PRAYER AFTER BEING DISMISSED FROM SERVICE

THERE is always this about human disappointment—that it can never have been unforeseen by You. Which means that You have been preparing me for this dismissal all along, and that, now I am dismissed, You are giving me the grace to adjust myself to the circumstance of the moment. I ask that I may make full use of this grace, and that I may not only stifle every suggestion of resentment but also, on the positive side, believe the issue to be the best thing for my soul. I need faith for this, Lord, because humanly speaking the odds seem all against me. I trust in Your wisdom, Lord, and believe with absolute confidence that from what looks to me like confusion and waste, You can bring order and perfection and glory to Yourself.

HIS PITIOUS LETTER READS:

I believe that no condition is permanent. If a person told me that my condition could be like this, I should have only laugh the person, I should have not believe the sayar. I had before what was called money. But I was not proud of it. I know that I didn't get it by power, it was rather by chance. If by power, I would not have it because I am a small man in stature. BY T-BONE SLIM

(Air: "They Go Wild, Simply Wild Over Me")

I'm as mild manned'r man as can be
And I've never done them harm that I can see,
Still on me they put a ban and they threw me in the can
They go wild, simply wild over me.

They accuse me of ras-cal-i-ty
But I can't see why they always pick on me,
I'm as gentle as a lamb, but they take me for a ram:
They go wild, simply wild over me.

Oh the "bull" he went wild over me
And he held his gun where everyone could see,
He was breathing rather hard when he saw my union card—
He went wild, simply wild over me.

Then the judge, he went wild over me,
And I plainly saw we never could agree,
So I left the man obey what his conscience had to say,
He went wild, simply wild over me.

Oh the jailer went wild over me,
And he locked me up and threw away the key—
It seems to be the rage so they keep me in a cage
They go wild, simply wild over me.

They go wild, simply wild over me.
I'm referring to the bedbug and the flea—
They disturb my slumber deep and I murmur in my sleep,
They go wild, simply wild over me.

Will the roses grow wild over me
When I'm gone into the land that is to be?
When my soul and body part in the stillness of my heart,
Will the roses grow wild over me?

THIS IS MY SECRET.

From Harl, Altman, and Cohen, The Executives Coloring Book (Chicago: Funny Products Co., 1961).

Now — Free Yourself From PSYCHIC ATTACK —and win back the money, love and power that is rightfully yours!

Right now, unknown to you, you are under "psychic" attack, from dozens of sources!

You may not suspect a thing, yet your life reflects the evil of a sudden psychic attack by your spouse, an exploiting boss, unfriendly neighbors, bossy friends and relatives, pushy co-workers or a hidden enemy—all of whom are capable of perpetrating a psychic attack against you!

ARE YOU BEING VICTIMIZED BY A PSYCHIC ATTACK?

Are you having trouble with your marriage or having other romantic problems? Did your rival get the promotion you deserved and expected? Is your boss able to justify not giving you a raise you've earned? Have you recently been plagued by nervousness and fidgeting . . . has insomnia replaced restful hours of the night? These are a few signs that you are under psychic attack—and if you are, the attacker can keep you from your goals . . . from happiness . . . from your very well-being indefinitely!

What's more, mind-scientists know that by means of a psychic attack someone can force you to pay homage to them, agree with them, do things for them. They can make you vulnerable to embarrassment, make you "look silly" in front of others whenever they want. But now, if you really want, here's where your rivals, enemies, jealous antagonists or anyone else who's been holding you back finally gets put in their place. From here on in you can get the money, love and power that is rightfully yours!

Now, at last, you can defend yourself against all forms of psychic attack with the powerful techniques of PSYCHIC SELF-DEFENSE! It's true! Without uttering a sound or even lifting one finger Psychic Self-Defense will dissolve all kinds of evil schemes perpetrated against you!

Yes, Psychic Self-Defense can quickly break the binding chains that others have held you with—and move you from the shadows of a psychic attack into the radiant sunlight . . . there to claim fantastic rewards, because you will be armed with the mightiest weapon on earth—Psychic Self-Defense!

SIMPLE AND EASY TO USE!

One of the most astounding things about Psychic Self-Defense is the ease with which you use it. You don't need any kind of special training, or mysterious "psychic gifts." Yet, once you master it you'll be able to break down every barrier, every obstacle, every stumbling block placed in your way by your enemies!

When you encounter someone who has become an obstacle to your plans and desires by placing you under psychic attack — Psychic Self-Defense will roar into action and overwhelm him as if he were a pebble in the path of a powerful steam roller!

One swift blow (which you can deliver from out of sight, or even miles away) using the techniques of Psychic Self-Defense can destroy any enemy you have now or ever will have! It's a devastating weapon that prevents all fear, all doubts, all feelings of insecurity and inferiority others have inflicted on you because you know that in split seconds you can vanquish anyone who stands in your way or evokes your discomfort!

You'll be able to take full command of your own life and your own destiny again. Inner strength will replace the weakness and fear others have plagued you with through psychic attack. Your problems will suddenly unravel. An entirely new self-identity and independence will appear. Your tensions and anxieties will turn to calm!

When you use your new found power of Psychic Self-Defense many apparent physical ailments will vanish—like magic. Each new day, which formerly threatened more terror when you were still under the bondage of psychic attack, will present opportunity, success, and happiness. Your life will take on new meaning and purpose—no matter how long the attack lasted or how disastrous it was!

But remember, right now, at this very moment you may be under psychic attack. Many of the people around you may be as normal and ordinary looking as you but are capable workers of the occult force of psychic attack! So beware—be prepared to reverse them with Psychic Self-Defense!

TRY IT FOR 10 DAYS AT OUR RISK!

To see for yourself what miracles of psychic protection against those with evil intention this method can perform, fill out and mail the coupon below for a no-risk 10-day trial. Act now! Don't risk one more day without Psychic Self-Defense!

The Philosophy of Fasting

A MESSAGE TO SUFFERERS AND SINNERS

By EDWARD EARLE PURINTON

HIS work is the product of an enthusiast along the lines of being. He is an explorer afloat on the ocean of existence, with a ready pen to record what he sees, what he feels, what he desires, what he hopes for. His mystic sympathies give birth to an iridescent philosophy that is ballasted by a sincere effort to shed from his soul-binding flesh its pains and impurities, that he may the more readily mount the eternal palace stairs of health and truth and beauty. He has discovered a Fountain of Youth where the ailing body may wash away its pains, troubles, weakness, blindness and rise like a god refreshed and ablaze with joy and ambition. He describes this fountain in these words:

"Fasting, rightly conducted and completed, is nearest a panacea for all mortal ills of any drugless remedy I know, whether physiological, metaphysical, or inspirational. Fasting, resting, airing, bathing, breathing, exercising and hoping—these seven simple measures, if sanely proportioned and administered, will cure any case of acute disease. And almost any case of chronic.

Mr. Purinton ought to know what he is talking about for he has actually experienced a fast of thirty days duration, and his book is a log-book as it were of his sensations. He says he "found God through this fast." His object was not merely to eliminate poisons from his body through fasting but to fast for health, enjoyment, freedom, power, beauty, faith, courage, poise, virtue, spirituality, instinct, inspiration, and love.

His book describes in detail how these fine qualities came into his possession through fasting, and in order that the reader may enjoy the same results, he gives twenty rules to guide the faster who undertakes the Conquest Fast, that is to say a fast of thirty days to endow mind, body and soul with the already-mentioned transcendent qualities.

We think every sick man or woman should read this book and take Mr. Purinton's experiences to heart. It costs nothing but a stern resolution to put in practice the fast so strongly recommended as a cure of almost every physical ailment. It will be admitted that a man who has arrived at adult age without having missed a meal whether his digestive apparatus wanted a holiday or not, must be laden to the gunwales with all the poisons of un-eliminated food products, whose fermentation is giving him untold misery.

For heaven's sake give your overworked organs a rest! Try the fasting cure and know a happiness that cannot otherwise be experienced this side of the Elysian Fields. And no better monitor, no better guide for such an experiment can be had than the book under consideration. Buy this book, read it, act upon its advice and thank both author and publishers for your happiness. Booklet descriptive of Purinton's Works on Philosophy, Mental Science, Efficiency, Health, Soul Life, etc., will be mailed for 5 cents in stamps.

Price in paper, postpaid, $1.10; cloth, $1.60.

Tyranny of Seasons. The lack of new products and the absence of the lift they normally give to earnings put Upjohn at the mercy of seasonal factors—witness its 36% earnings drop in the last quarter of 1966, which produced few respiratory ailments and thus cut into sales of such better-known Upjohn products as Cheracol cough syrup and Unicap vitamins. "From a humanitarian standpoint," says Parfet, "this is wonderful." But the business problem is none the less severe.

SACKING A DRUG STORE IN SECOND AVENUE.

Funny Money Fools Friendly Fraulein

MANNHEIM—Cheap thrills? Pfc Ronald Fischel set an alltime record when he got the maximum possible kicks for the least possible cash.

The 19-year-old GI picked up a German playgal and paid for a quickie romance in her car with a $20 bill — or what looked like a $20 bill.

Fischel recently marched before a North Baden Dist special court martial and admitted that the double-sawbuck he passed one night last November was a phony.

It was a pretty amateurish phony — a photostatic copy partially colored with green crayon.

Fischel, a onetime clerk in the reproduction section, confessed to borrowing a twenty from a buddy at Garrison Hq Co and running off a copy on his office copying machine.

Then he took off for Heidelberg with the funny money and latched onto a willing fraulein who agreed to take a quick tumble in her auto for 40 marks ($10).

When the fun was over, explained the sandy-haired trooper, he gave her the counterfeit bill — which she accepted, making change.

Fischel generously forked over a 10 mark ($2.50) tip and went back to Hammond Barracks.

The play-for-pay gal gave the photostat cash to a girl friend who gave it to her 6-year-old daughter to change at a local bank.

A teller at the bank unsuspectingly raked in the crude imitation currency and it wasn't till later that red-faced officials at the simoleon depository realized they'd been taken over the hurdles.

At that point, Fischel was in the clear.

But a few months later the GI's victim spotted him once again in Heidelberg and called the cops. He quickly signed a confession and that was the beginning of the end.

Pleading guilty before a five-officer jury to passing counterfeit money, Fischel escaped a possible six-month stretch behind bars but was socked with 45 days in the stockade plus an $80 fine and reduction to Pvt E1.

After the trial, however, Dist CO Col Douglas W. Mitchell threw out everything but a $50 fine and Fischel was restored to duty — in the ID photo shop instead of the reproduction section.

"He's not a very good counterfeiter, but we aren't taking any chances," said a spokesman.

A MONEY MIRACLE CAN COME TO YOU, TOO!!

When you are Magnetized for Money.

Join this new Prosperity Movement! Write today for free information.

Properly magnetized, any human being can summon a Money Miracle. For of all miracles, the Money Miracle is most common. They occur every day. Money is not an artificial, man-made institution, but an abstraction of a basic energy of Nature! Prosperity begets prosperity. When your neighbor makes big money, this does not deprive you, but instead increases your chances of getting rich. The more money YOU make, the more everyone makes. There is no limit to human prosperity, save those limitations placed on it artificially by wrong thinking. An individual — you — may be energized, magnetized and polarized to attract the flow of money, for money is an energy, like electricity, and flows according to set patterns of polarity. The Midas Touch bursts upon you when you are fully magnetized. When enough Americans have learned the principles of the Midas Touch, and the techniques of controlling the energy of Nature that manifests itself through the medium of Money, a new national concept of prosperity is to begin. We are authorized now to find the first few people who will be energized, magnetized and polarized to attract the money flow. By radiant example, these trained, enlightened Money Magnets will launch this move toward Prosperity Unlimited. If you are interested in being a guinea pig for Money Miracles, and believe you can handle larger amounts of money than you have ever seen, write for details about this new Prosperity Movement right now. HE PLEADS NOT GUILTY

WHERE AND HOW TO GET FREE LAND

If the rewards of taming free land strike you as great enough to outweigh the risks, land is still available in the West and Alaska. Most of it, like Diamond Valley, is marginal for farming. Over the long pull, one out of every seven applicants is granted entry to the claim he wants. One out of three who get entry eventually prove up and get patent to the land. Still, determined men do make it. About 270 patents are granted annually.

Although the U.S. generally insists only that a claimant be an American citizen who can demonstrate a reasonable chance of success on the claim, requirements do vary with local conditions. Full information is available from the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior. It's usually best to write or visit the Bureau offices located in the region that interests you. Here is a list of addresses in regions where there is still land for the taming.

Introducing...
...the "TRIPLET"
MULTI-LOOP

3 Loops in 1

The "Triplet" is another first for White's Electronics. This probe was designed to produce maximum efficiency at both shallow and penetrating depths simultaneously. A dime near the surface or a treasure chest three feet in the ground can be detected and no need to change loops. In addition to the efficiency of this probe, White's instruments are designed to detect both hard and soft metals and determine the difference.

Be right the first time! White's instruments are sold on performance . . . not propaganda!
