Dreadnougl Workers THE RIGHT TO CONSUME.

Vol. XI No. 9

May 17th 1924

WEEKLY

abour and the New World A Critical Review,

Those who desire a new social order should onstantly re-examine their ideals. Mr. Philip mowden has attempted the task in his jus-ublished book "Labour and the New World."

The introspective effort required by this work must have done much to clarify and coordinate the views of Mr. Snowden. Neverheless the work reveals annoying inconsistencies, and Mr. Snowden is obviously far, rom sure whether many of the measures he proposes are to be regarded as integral features of his Socialist Commonwealth, or merestop-gap palliatives of the present system.

In the course of his struggle to put his leas of the "New World" into plain black and white, Mr. Snowden has discovered, like any others, that his vision is neither precise or clear. In opening his exposition of the new world order," he realised the flimsiness f his conception and prefaced his remarks of excuse that-

'The function of the social reformer is not "The function of the social reformer is not to dogmatize about the goal of human progress, nor to draw a detailed and complete plant of the ideal state, nor to lay down rigid lines of social development."

Having made that statement Mr. Snowden roceeds to be exceedingly rigid and dogmatic a large number of points which we shall recently discuss

resently discuss

Evils of Capitalism.

Mr. Snowden is on surest ground in the first chapter of his book, in which he indicate the present system. This chapter is of lesser interest to those who are already convinced of the badness of the present system, but will have an educative influence upon the large unconverted public, who will read this book because it is written by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. To the unthinking it will doubtless be instructive to learn on such authority that "only one person in every seven who dies leaves any property whatsoever while in the year 1919, of the 91,499 estates becoming liable to duty, 41,581 estates did not exceed £500 gross value, 238 estates exceeded £100,000 in net value, nine estates exceeded £1,000,000, and one exceeded £3,000,000. To £100,000 in net value, nine estates exceeded £1,000,000, and one exceeded £3,000,000. To many heedless people it may not be a commonplace, but a revelation, to learn from Mr. Snowden that in 1910, of the total national income of the United States, 53.1 per cent. was monopolised by rent, interest and profit, only 46.9 going to wages and salaries. In 1920, when the population of Europe was urgently needing cotton goods the cotton growers in the Southern States were destroying part of the season's crop to enhance the price.

The Fallacy of Reformism.

Mr. Snowden, in this opening chapter, decides against the argument that the evils of the capitalist system can be, and are being, eliminated. He urges that "for a decade before 1914, there had been no advance in the conditions of the working class as a whole. On the contrary, wages had declined and the cost of living had increased." In 1854 the average cash wage of the agricultural worker was 10s. 8d., in 1908 it was 14s. 7½d. In the principal industries-coal mining, principal industries—coal mining, textile manufacture, building, engineering—the mean rate of wages in 1908 was only 10 per cent. above that of 1874. Incomes assessed under schedule D (from gains arising from professions, trade, railways, canals, mines, gas works, water works) meanwhile had risen from £88,401,860 in 1854, to £565,601,312 in 1908 and to £1,094,000,000 in 1917-18. In comes assessed under Schedule A (from houses and land) rose from £111,000,000 in 1854 to £285,000,000 in 1914. £285,000,000 in 1914.

"The London Season."

Thus the increase in national wealth clearly went, not to the wage worker, but to the landlord and capitalist. Mr. Snowden postulates, rightly enough that "whilst the unbridled ruthlessness of capitalism had been bridled" by legislation, such legislation had work "diver to capitalism a legislation had "diver to capitalism a legislation had been bridled" by legislation, such legislation had been bridled "diver to capitalism a legislation had been bridled" by legislation a legislation had been bridled to be the such that the beautiful manufacture of the beautiful bridled" by legislation, such legislation had merely "given to capitalism a longer lease of life than it could have enjoyed had it been left to work out its will without restriction and control."

That is a very important admission, but unfortunately Mr. Snowden has not broken yet with the policy he condemns.

CAPITALISM BRIDLED, DEVELOPES IMPERIALISM AND TRUSTS.

Mr. Snowden, with great acuteness, observes that the state regulation of capitalism has been one of the reasons which have caused it to fortify itself by developing Imperialism and the Trusts. He attributes the arrest in the improvement in the position of the workers to Imperialism and the Trusts. To elucidate the facts regarding that contention would require a lengthy argument upon which we will not embark, as our purpose is to examine the view of Mr. Snowden in regard to the new society. Nevertheless we regret to observe that though Mr. Snowden condemns Imperialism in unsparing terms his mind is not fully emancipated from its thraldom which has so strong a hold on the majority of not fully emancipated from its thraldom which has so strong a hold on the majority of his colleagues.

Mr. Snowden is aware that Imperialism is the outcome of capitalism, for "economic pressure urges capitalism to be constantly seeking fresh markets and new sources of raw material." He knows that "Imperialism has been advocated and defended as a great civilising policy and that National pride and con-commercial and financial interests. clares that "Territorial domination of a native Farty that upheld the policy of the Irish Free State and the crushing of the Repubhe; he belongs to a government which is maintaining that policy of its predecessors; he belongs to a government which has en-dorsed and maintained the Sudan Irrigation Scheme, which has refused a round table cor rerence with the Indian non-co-operators and given India to-understand that she is by no means to be allowed to escape from the Empire, which keeps order in Mesopotamia and other primitive places by aeroplane bombs, which subsidises and advertises the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley, and generally proclaims itself as enthusiastic for Imperialism as any of its predecessors.

Moreover, even in the present work, Mr Snowden excuses the evil he condemns; or rather, whilst he denounces, Imperialism he decides to preserve the British Empire.

"When an act reprehensible in itself has been committed it is not always the best or most expedient course to renounce the obligatons which have been acquired or to revert to the previous conditions. The British Empire is a fact which must be re cognised, and its obligations must be accepted and fulfilled in such a way as will undo the mischief as far as possible while avoiding consequences which might aggra looking to a federation of the world, then it would be a backward step to take any action which would break the ties which now bind the self-governing dominions and Great Britain together. British Empire uses its powerful position in the world, not for domination but to help the weak, then it can be the greatest in strument for world progress which has ever of the British people. . If pursued, this nobler policy may atone for the wrongs which have been done in the past.

"The problem of the position of the non-Anglo-Saxon dependencies presents very serious difficulties. But if British control of these dependencies be conducted in the spirit of conferring benefits upon our subects rather than of exploiting them for our wn advantage if our policy be directed t ating to their national affairs, then our Government may be justified by the good that it has accomplished. So long as a spirit of Imperialism dominates the Great Powers, the withdrawal of British Government from dependencies like India and the Crown Colonies will not be likely to leave these territories in the possession of inde-pendent self-government, but to leave them prey to the predatory designs of other

It must be clearly understood, however, that to refer to India as though it were a country inhabited by a backward race, is absurd. There are in India many races, many communities at various stages of culture and

The Indians who have tasted of modern culture are very largely cosmopolitanised, and Government by them would display all the essential characteristics of capitalist govern to-day. There is every reason to anticipate that they would build up an army to de-fend the territory of India from foreign aggression in the approved capitalist style. Mr. Snowden's fear that if Britain were to release India, it would fall into the hands of one of her rivals, is, we believe, quite groundless.

One feels that Mr. Snowden is influenced by the fact that he is a member of the Government and may be called to account for what he says. Therefore on foreign affairs, especially, he is cautious and contradictory.

ceit have thus been exploited to serve sordid He declares that if all the commercial nations of the world were members of the League the Covenant of the League, with its policy of Mandates, will provide the best way of ad-

Mr. Snowden has to admit, however-

"There is no prospect that the mandates will be exercised for the good of the people, white capital which exploits the White worker at home can-not be expected to play the altruist towards the black worker abroad. Capitalism would not pay if it pursued the policy of conferring benefit on its subjects, instead of exploiting them, and capitalism must pay or disappear

Mr. Snowden begs the question when he says that if British control is for the benefit of the natives only, and not for British advantage, it may be justified. Obviously Brit ish control cannot be justified on such grounds. On the basis f things as they are, what does Mr. Snowden say?

His statements are contradictory but on

The right of Great Britain to maintain its sovereignty over a territory and people unwilling to accept that sovereignty cannot and Egypt, desire to assert their complete independence, we have no right to keep them under subjection by the power of the ord. We cannot justly deny to a people e right of self-determination, because the political domination of that country trategical military importance to the British Empire.

That declaration is in direct conflict with the statements of the abour Government in regard to India.

Empires are so incompatible with Socialism that it is difficult to believe Mr. Snowden seriously means to maintain the Dominions mandate system in his "New World, Mr. Snowden's idea of Socialism partake very largely of the old order. His new world is surprisingly like the old world in many re-

He would still retain the wage system, for instance, in his "New World Order."

Only Communism, with its healing virtue of production for use; its simple, utilitarian organisation of Society on the basis of production for use can solve the problem of the backward races

Industry and the New World Order.

Let us turn, however, to Mr. Snowden's for the basic organisation of the

Mr. Snowden proposes to retain Parliament in his Socialistic society and to maintain it much as it is. He would add a National Ecto Parliament and under its control. He fur-

Workshop Committees elected by the whole ody of workers, representative of all grades. District Councils composed of representatives of the workshops and trades within the presentative of the National economic coun-

National Economic Council, consisting of representatives of the District Councils, representatives of the political State or Parliament and representatives of the consumers.

Wages and rates of pay would be fixed by have semi-legislative powers in these matters and in regulating factory conditions.

The concentration of factories and work shops in the most favourable places, and the elimination of owners would be done by the District Councils

The National Economic Council would co rdinate national production, estimate the vome of commodities required by the who community, purchase the raw materials ar distribute them through the District Commi ees to the factories.

An Agricultural Committee would organi agricultural production and estimate require nents in the same manner.

Half Way House.

It will be observed that Mr. Snowden 1 nalted mid-way between Parliamentary S ial Democracy and a Communist indust organisation of society.

He has got so far as to declare that the must be democracy in industry but he feat it and desires to minimise its effects.

He declares it is undesirable that the onomic organisation should assume an imtance equal to that of Parliament. "I test," he says, "against the idea that hur life should be sacrificed to the production wealth." That is the case at present, we may

Mr. Snowden continues: "It would be try led to the minds and efforts of all w ion of production." He urges that the wor and administration to experts.

He believes there is a danger of develop a selfish class interest within the self-gover ing industrial group. He believes that:

"If the control of an industry were lentirely to those who are employed in it is very likely that a group interest wo be created which would be anti-social. Supported the second of uncontrolled groups would be under temptation to exploit the public for own gain, and a conflict of interests tween the different groups might eas arise. Such groups might become ve powerful and might be able to exercise political power which would be a gredanger to the State. . .

'In any scheme of workers' control interests of the consumers or citizens have to be predominent."

All these fears are utterly opposed to over view and ta what be believe to be to pirit of communism.

do not regard production as someth to be shunned as too material, but as part the great glorious work of humanity, in which all should take a living, vital enthusiastic i

That Mr. Snowden recognised even in pa the need for the self-management of ind try is, however, an advance.

It is interesting to observe that he advocat the Soviet, or workers' council, for industr though he has many times denounced it undemocratic and condemned it on the sc that it is built upon a system of indir

This condemnation springs from the roote belief in authoritarian centralism.

The upholders of the strong state idea, which Mr. Snowden is still one, would ma the workshop councils mere pawns direct by higher authorities. That has been one the features of Bolshevik rule in Russ which Mr. Snowden denounces.

Free autonomy and initiative at the poof production is, however, essential to trealisation of the workers' councils under co munism. The District Councils must be puly advisory centres for the collection and tribution of information and for the co-ordination and supply of material, on a basis voluntary agreement in the general interesso with the National Council.

As to Parliament, the political State, is unnecessary to Communism.

Mr. Snowden agrees that the New Ordan must be world wide; therefore the armies an navies of the political State will be needed. Its foreign offices, which Mr. Sno would democratise, by throwing its posts en to poor men by competitive examina-ns will disappear.

Workshop Committee v. Trade Unions.

Snowden realises that the Trade Unions st give way to the workshop organisation e are glad to find so cautious a man agree th us in that. He thinks the craft unions remain for the perfection of the craft ely, but not for the general organisation of Co-operatives.

We observe also that Mr. Snowden's view the same as ours in regard to co-rative societies. We have long contended t these are planned on a basis of petts rld order in which buying and selling will Snowden proposes that distribution uld be carried out by the existing municipodies or something like them. He king a mistake there. He should link up Moreover, the municipal bodies are like Parament, instituted for such work.

Production for use, not profit,

The true workers' councils of Communi consist only of those who are doing the k. They will not require to be diluted outsiders without knowledge of the work he checks and balances which ustrial groups from exploiting the rest munity, the bonuses he suggests stimulating production and so on are atures of the present system. Mr. Snow-n, of course, thinks they cannot be dis-nsed with, because he still proposes to oduce for sale and to engage labour to ork for wages. He even says that the alaried prizes now possible in private en-erprise will have to be available in the to work on a wage basis and if co ties are to be bought and sold, how those claried prizes can ever be brought to an

If some people are drawing salaried prizes nd others are living at a bare subsistence evel the New World order will reflect the ls of the Old World order.

Compensation for the Capitalist.

Moreover, Mr. Snowden would compensate capitalist and the landlord, and thereby petuate them, as parasites existing on t interest and profit. He says-

"Nationalisation is not advocated as a ethod by which the rentier class could be mediately abolished.

Some people raise objection to national sation by compensation on the ground that huge and intolerable public debt would isation by be created. Such an objection of this can only be urged by those who are woefully ignorant of the methods by which joint stock companies are financied. The share capital or a joint stock company, raised by public subscriptions in the form of shares, just as much a debt as wuld be the tal raised by the State for the acquision of, say, the railways or the mines. The allway capital of the country is held by individual shareholders to whom the rail-company is indebted. There is no real lifference between the debt owing by oint stock company to its shareholders and a debt which would be owing by the State on the bonds and shares it issued for quisition of a business concern. If the State acquired the railways, the mines, the great shipping lines, or an industrial bus-iness like the Coats, or the Lever Com-ine, or the Shell Oil Company, there would be no increase of debt. The State would have assumed the position of the companies and would have accepted their responsibili-ties for the capital which had been subscribed by private individuals'

Compensating the Capitalist Perpetuates Canitalism.

Precisely so. That is our objection to buy ing out the capitalist. To do so perpetuates capitalism. It makes it necessary to preserve production and distribution for profit with age slavery, class distinctions, for class disand all the characteristic feautres of capitalist Foreign Investments.

In dealing with foreign relations Mr. Snowden makes the same point clear. He says—
"A Labour and Socialist Government in Great Britain having a clear Parliamentary majority for pursuing a policy of socialism, but which respected the rights of toreign investors in this country, and which re-cognised trading debts would not be likely to encounter the open bountry of other respect the rights of foreign investos is to keep the capitalist system going

Mr. Snowden, of course, declares himself an opponent of revolution. He discounts the view that 'a bloody revolution is inevitable because "it will be forced by the classes if Labour Government attempted schemes of reform, involving the expropris tion of the capitalist class." It is inlikely Mr. Snowden urges because the Labour Gov ernment would not attempt such reforms un less backed by a majority, in reover the civil service and forces of law and order would be under the Labour Government and "the privileged classes in GreatBritain have always shown a remarkable willingness to bow to the inevitable." He asks—"Suppose the Labour Government nationalised the land, are the landlords going to raise an army and fight for their privileges. "Are the small number of people affected by nationalising the mines and railways going to raise an armed insurrection, he asks. Will the people whose income tax is so raised that only a small living wage is left "march to the barricades?"

There is no reasonable ground to believe this," Mr. Snowden decides; but later in the book, he predicts this very thing will happen if there is any attempt to expropriate

Revolution Predicted if Capitalists not Compensated

Mr. Snowden urges that the entire system of production cannot be confiscated at onc, of production cannot be confiscated at once, argument, a very ineffective one, we developed to the point of ripeness for public acquisition.

"Partial confiscation," he says, precipitate a violent revolution, in which not only those who were being dispossessed would participate, but all the large property interests because they would naturally expect that their turn might soon come.'

This, indeed, is the whole case of those who say we must recognise that vested interests will resist by every possible means the coming of the new order

Socialism through Taxation.

Mr. Snowden's proposals for taxing capitalism gradually out of existence would, we think, be resisted just as he says partial confiscation would be resisted.

The capitalists will have the greater power of resistence if they are left in possession of the greater part of their great wealth both in land and industry and in finance, assuming as Mr. Snowden does, that the existing financial system will continue

Mr. Snowden further urges that the organisation of capitalism must not be dislocated.

He declares that it is essential to maintain

He says—
The mere fear or threat of confiscation prowould have a disastrous effect upon pro-duction. Capitalists could not be expected to continue to produce, to renew plant, to improve their process if the spece of confiscation were before them. would be harmful, if not disastrous, to nat ionalisation to advocate a policy which would lower the efficiency of the industries it is proposed to acquire."

Mr. Snowden's plan of bleeding the capitalist to death by taxation would produce just the results he fears as any manufacturer or merchant can tell him. Capital is the life of capitalist enterprise. Without it one cannot do business. The smallest shopkeeper know

It is most interesting to observe the contrast between Mr. Snowden's remarks on taxation in this book and the homily with which concluded his recent Budget statement.
In the book he says—

"Socialists . . . would deliberately tax rent, interest and profit in order to divert a part of the national product from individual use to social purpose.

"The instrument of taxation must be deliberately used for the purpose of effecting a better distribution of weelth. Such ing a better distribution of wealth. Such better distribution must be effected by the taxation to extinction of unearned in

On the Budget Mr. Snowden said-The Budget is vindictive against no class, and no interest. Though I have always held and declared that the State has the right to call upon the whole of the available resources of its citizens in case of national need, I have equally held and declared that the State has no right to pay anyone, unless it can show that the taxs

ion is likely to be used more beneficially

As we have observed Mr. Snowden's boo's is very contradictory and the remarks we have made in respect of his taxation plan, he, himself, expresses in the following sentences—

'A capital levy, if repeatedly imposed, would be self destructive. It would ultimately drain the resources from which revenue must be derived. It would discourage saving and the accumulation of capital, and it would keep the commercial world in a state of uncertainty, would prevent the investment of capital in business, and would be minous to trade and industry.

Ramsay MacDonald.

* *

"We will try to change industry from a battleground of strikes to a co-operation and confidence between the worker and the owner of capital by mutual confidence, based not upon patron and patronised, but based upon control, based upon recognition of the fact that the man who writes poetry and preaches sermons, as well as the man who scrapes roads and lays the bricks, is contributing to the whole of the wealth of a moral society."—J. Ramsay MacDonald.

Or William Morris?

It is enough political economy for me to know that the idle class is rich and the working class is poor, and that the rich are rich because the rich are rich are rich because the rich are r

"That I know because I see it with my own es. I need read no books to convince me of it. And it does not matter a rap, it seems to me, whether the robbery is accomplished by what is termed surplus value, or by means of serfage, or open brigandage. The whole sys-tem is monstrous and intolerable, and what we Socialists have got to do is to work together for its complete overthrow, and for the establishment in its stead of a system of co-operation where there shall be no masters or slaves, but where there shall be no masters or slaves, but where everyone will live and work jollily together as neighbours and comrades for the equal good of all That, in a nutshell, is my political economy and my social democracy."—William Morris.

Workers' Dreadnought

Founded 1914.

Editor: Sylvia Pankhurst.

All Matter for Publication- To The Editor. Business Communications- To The Manager.

WORKERS' DREADNOUGHT, 152, FLEET STREET, LONDON, E.C.4. Post free. SUBSCRIPTIONS. 1s. 7½d. 3s. 3d. 6s. 6d. Three months (13 weeks) .. Six months (26 weeks) ..

Vol, XI. No. 9, Saturday, May 17th 1924

Our View.

Moving

Labour Party Government is, of course, a weariness to the Communist, but in the intention of the electors, it is an evolutionary stage beyond government by the confessedly pro-capitalist parties. Everywhere the direction is Leftward. In the German elections the Communists have gained sub-stantially from the Social Democrats. The atrength of the real Left Movement, which does not work through Parliament will deas all the Parliamentary parties fail in Volatile Mr. Garvin, in the "Observer voices a thought which is insistent in some quarters when he urges the Tories either to coalesce with the Liberals or to place them leed become farcical when it is seriously pro posed that the smallest Party should be called on to form the Government.

Exit Poincare: France was upbraided on Enter Renaudal, many hands but yesterday as the blackest reaction left superficial cres of the hour will fly to the other extreme. We shall hear of the great advancement of France—for a little while. Int is true, the trend of the popular mind ftward in all countries. The Radicalis Leftward in all countries. The Radical-socialists, the Socialists and the Communists (III. International) are the only parties in the French Elections which have not lost votes It is true Poincare has gone; his visit to Chequers will not take place; we shall hear no more, for a time at least, of "M. Poincare and I." Yet what faith can we place in those leaders of parties who will share the reversion of Poincare's power? Briand, the old renegade of an earlier Socialist movement, whose name and policies were coupled with those of Lloyd George in the making of the iniquitous Versailles peace. Herriot, some time regarded as having paticist tendencies, but a supporter of the Ruhr invasion, Renaudel, the jingo Social-Democrat, one of the men who bear most responsibility for leading the workers of Europe blindfold into the last way, one of the grossest of the inggest one the workers of Europe blindfold into the last war; one of the grossest of the jingoes; one of the loudest of the prophets of the truce of the workers with capitalism; one of those, who, like Barnes, Henderson, Clynes and Roberts in this country, entered a capitalist coalition government to impose on the workers military conscription, and as much industrial compulsion as they would tolerate. One of those who preached the Union sacre whilst the profiteers made harvest out of the poverty of the people. It is not surprising to learn that Renaudel is again proposing to enter a capitalist coalition government.

Last of all there is the French section of Third International, with its leader

Cachin. Cachin became a supporter of the Russian Revolution; but before that he had been a prominent supported of the war and the Coalition with capitalism.

The true Left movement outside the Parliamentary parties of France is hardly heard of across the frontiers; but it will grow. The Leftward March has begun: It will hasten

During the war the pro-war Labour Parties of the world came to be described as Social Patriots because they adopted the prevailing attitude of the national capitalism and made their own. Social Patriotism did not die with the war. The result is that solid international unity is impossible to the Labour Parties which are still swayed by opportunist leaders. Thus while the British Labour Party stands for Free Trade, the Irish Labour Party supports protection. The South African Lab-our Party has formed an Alliance with the Nationalists who are working to secure high tariffs to build up South African industries in opposition to British. The only solution to all these rivalries is the ending of capitalism. Speed the day.

A fourth of the Mr. J. H. Thomas, the Globe ruled by Colonial Secretary, stated at Monmouth that he had One Man. been entrusted with the responsibility of one fourth of the globe, and one-fourth of the world's inhabitants were under his jurisdiction. The constitution that allowed that transformation to take place that allowed the engine cleaner of yesterday to be the Colonial Secretary of to-morrow was a Constitution to be proud of and zealously

It is not because Mr. Thomas was an en gine cleaner that we emphatically dissent from that opinion.

In our view, it is a monstrous iniquity that ne-fourth the world's people should be under the jurisdiction of one man, subject to his inevitable ignorance of their desires and needs, subject to his will. Of course, it is true, as Mr. Philip Snowden aptly observes in his recent book, that Ministers are "large." he servants of the permanent officials, both n regard to general policy and administration. "The magnitude of the duties and operations of the Government Departments" has, as Mr. Snowden says, made this inevitable. Though the autocracy of one man thus rather a sham than a reality in most things, the autocracy of the Department officials is only a lesser iniquity. If Mr. Thomas could be transformed by some obliging fairy into a native of one of the Crown Colonies and could he still remember his foolishness or to-day, the blush of shame would tinge his dusky cheek and his own most charitable ex-planation of his recent utterance would be that he was then an egregious ass

Education or The Labour Government Unemployment has decided that children of 14 to 16 years of age shall Pay. be made eligible for unemployment tinsurance. Instead of being helped to continue their education they are to be handed over to the Ministry of Labour as industrial units; they will have to attend the Labour Exchange to sign on in proof of unemployment, and pressure will be brought to bear on them to accept the first em ment that offers, however unsuitable it may

Surely a Labour Government might have been expected at least to attempt to make these children maintenance grants for educational training rather than to turn them into the herd of the unemployed.

Impoverished Austrias unfortunat people are amongst the most un happy victims of the capitalist sys tem to-day. Because of their appalling poverty they are an easy prey tuberculosis. That disease affecting the laryn has grown so common in the Austria capital as to be called "Vienna illness." Foo abundance for a starved population is the great need to stay the scourge. This is no forthcoming. The professors are busy devising methods of cure since the great essential prevention is not available. Professor Haja and Dr. Wessely have constructed a carbo electric arc light, of which the carbons ar impregnated with certain metallurgical chl ides of sodium. This is a substitute for the curative Swiss sunshine, to which the well-t do go for cure, when attacked by the drea

A certain League of Nations pamphlet entitled "How the League saved Austria The salvation provided by the League is, a deed of a mythic order, Austria, having beed by war and stifled by blockade, was after wards dis-membered and surrounded by tari walls, so that she ceased to be econo self-supporting, and was debarred from importing what she lacked, except on costleterms. She was then loaded with a heavy reparations burden and finally, under pretent of aid, was handed over to the exploitation isurers may force Austria to balance h budget by imposing further harsh privation on her people, but Nature revolts against the iniquity and the physical resistance of t people is broken down. Vast, indeed, are t miseries which cry out for the ending of the capitalist system and not least those of un

The Workers' The Railway Clerks' Assoc Council System. iation conference has been of industry. Its executive opposed the principle and procured a vote favur of the joint control of industry by the workers therein, and by the community. Thidea of workers control is moving onward an ecuring wider and wider circles of adherent When it is fully understood, we shall see spring up the workshop councils which even tually will take over industry.

Wembley and The Daily Herald says the Labour movement ma port to Wembley because of the starvation vages paid to waitresses and lavatory a endants. Obviously the Exhibition is a r pitalist stunt. "The shop window of the mpire," as the Prince of Wales has called capitalist stunt. , is not an mappropriate title.

Mr. MacDonald, speaking at Wembley, reported by the "Daily Herald" as saying

'Alacrity of mind, vigilance of intellect hatred of revolution, and a warm welcom to evolution—that is the senius that is goin to enable the British Empire to become

On reading such utterances we remise how fundamental and vast is the change of out look which must be brought about in prepara the new social order of mutual a and well being for all.

Dreadnought £1,000 Fund.

Brought forward £223 4s. 4d. S. N. Ghose Brought forward £223 4s. 4d. S. N. Ghose. Ss.; Neuwirth, Ss.; F. Brimy, 31s. (monthly); G. Sear, 6s.; R. Ellis, 5s.; F. Haughton (5s. monthly), £1; E. C. 1s.; H. Taylor, 2s. 42d.; A. B. Howie, 1s. 6d.; J. Brown, 6d.; A. Carford, 7s. 3d.; A. Hodson, 14s.; E. Wright, 11s.; Collection Clapham Common, 4s. 3d. Total for fortight £7, 17s. 4d. Collection Clapham Common, 4s. 81d. Total for fortnight £7 17s. 4d. Total 1229 1s. 8d.

PARLIAMENT AS WE SEE IT

Ir. David Kirkwood (Lab.) and others agid for the restoration of the Plimsol load regulations. This safeguard was modified Mr. Lloyd George was at the Board of the ittle mysteries of the session question as to why the Speaker reto allow a vote on the second reading rstanding had been come to with him, the vote should be taken. The Speaker it was because Sir Robert Horne had interrupted and on account of that had d to speak that he had refused the clos-In that case the Speaker is certainly a t respecter of persons.

Scottish Home Rule.

mehow we fancy the Cabinet or the Prime ister, perhaps, had given the Speaker in ctions not to allow the closure. Tha speaker was doing what the Government cted in regard to the closure had become evident in Suffragette days, when a hly-fought issue ended by disclosing much the wire-pulling behind the scenes.

he Secretary for Scotland (Mr. Adamson) ted that the Government gave a general roval to the Bill, and would be prepared to the noise to go into the question report to the house. Scottish Home Rule a question which may give the Govern-it a little trouble as its Ulyde supporters very keen on securing it and are working a Scottish Nationality Movement. Mr. asay MacDonald was a Scottish National in the days of long ago.

Peace Ship Building for Naval Yards.

531,000 more than last year was asked the Naval shipyards for the building of eut.-Commander Kenworthy (Lib.), proed that the Government should consider the Naval Yards might be used for making d engineering products, locomotives and eering products.

he Government did not take up the sug-ion. The Parliamentary Secretary (Mr. mon) said the Government was willing to Sheerness Dockyard for commercial work that in giving out the work for the cruisers Government had not been able to ignore fact that the private capitalist yards had us because they had assembled plant of great value and had more efficient tech. taffs than those in the Government he State enterprise the Labour Party ds for lags, because the Government dare face the might of vested interests, but amon did not say that.

Haycock (Labour) twitted Liberals Tories with trying to force the Govern-to go in for National buildings of merile and other products. He would rather l passenger steamers than cruisers and Predicting War.

B. Falle (C), said ten years hence, when ay have another war, 80 or 800 miles make no difference to aircraft. Already nch airman is doing 800 miles in 6 hours British Empire has got, he said, "every le thing in the world that the other ons want. There is hardly a spot on the coutside Europe and America which is table by which is ble by white people that does not beo the British Empire. The other na-he said, would like some of that terri-That is why they are preparing for aat is why Communism is the only alter we to war, since Imperialists, even our our Party Imperialists are determined not urrender a yard of territory.

8-inch Guns.

It was observed that the Government i of 7.5 inch guns as heretofore. This will lead way in another advance in the size of Women and Cordite.

Asked why women instead of men are embloyed in the sheds where experiments are eing made with cordite Mr. Ammon said— "They stand the climatic conditions better than men and they have the temperament. Asked whether women are cheaper than

In View of Government Scheme.

The price of bricks has risen since last

May Day Echoes.

The Tories objected to the use of Poplar municipal vehicles to convey people to Hyd: Park on May Day, displaying posters of the "Daily Herald," Mr. Wheatley said the district auditor could object if he thought fit.

British Guiana.

During a labour dispute in British Guiana ne worker was killed and fourteen wounded by the police.

Government Evictions.

In respect of 1,000 houses let by the Government, there were 61 notices ummonses for possession, 33 orders for pos-

Another Hardship.

The son of Thomas Russell, of Kilmarnock, was put in Ayr District Asylum. The Parish Council obtained against Russell an order that he should pay on this account £40 and £9 2s. 6s. expenses. The son's disability is now recognised as due to war service.

Mr. Adamson (Secretary for Scotland) said

The system precludes considerations of jus tice and humanity

Opium.

In 1922-23 the Government of India and provincial governments made Rs 64,100,463 from the production and sale of opium. The control of production cost Rs. 1,86,60,643. The collection of dues, etc., cost Rs. 1.28,79, Army Extension and Housing.

A new military camp is being built at Catterick. An order for 5,000,000 bricks for it has been placed at Darlington at 16s. per 1,000 above the local price. Consequently house building is held up Scottish Teachers' Superanuation.

In 1918 the Government of the day instituted a new, more generous, and non-contri-bution scheme for teachers' pensions. Three years later the Government forced the teachers to pay 5 per cent. of their salaries towards pension—the same thing happened in England and Scotland. The Act of 1922 making the teachers pay 5 per cent of their salaries now lapses. The Labour Government has ex tended it for England and on May 7th, the Scottish secretary proposed to extend it for Scotland till 1926. Incidentally be observed that the money the teachers are paying is not being set aside for their pensions, but used as an appropriation in aid of current expendi-

Mr. Maxton (Lab.) pleased vainly that the present arrangement should only continue till 1925.

West Indies' Telegraph Bill.

The Government introduced a Bill to authorise the lending of £400,000 to an American cable company. Apparently the money has already been spent. The Bill was prepared by the late Government. The present Government adopted the scheme. It was pointed out that cables are being superceded by wire-less telegraphy and that the scheme is thus out of date.

It was not pointed out that it is in conflict with Socialistic principles to build up more capitalist monopolies, whether native or foreign Secondary Schools.

The Bill was read a third time and passed. Secondary schools must admit 20 per cent. of non-fee paying children from the elementary schools. The Board of Education an nounces permission to make it 40 per cent. but as the Board of Education does not provide the cash, the permit will be ignored to

Some Welsh local authorities have abolished the fees, however.

FROM THE PUBLISHERS

All books reviewed in our columns may be obtained from the Dreadnought bookshop. The Martyrdom of Man

(By Winwood Reade. Watts 2s. 6d.).

Winwood Reade, a nephew of Charles Reade, the famous novelist was born in 1838 and died at the age of 36. He was an African explorer, a free thinker and wrote several His most serious work is the Martyrdom of Man.

The work is divided into three parts. A world history first, entitled "War," deals with World listory first, entitled "War," deals with Egypt, Western Asia, the Persians, Greeks, Macedonians, Alexandria, the Phoenicians, Carthage and Rome, Roman Agrica, and the Arabs. The seend part entitled "Religion" deals with "The natural history of Religion," the Israelites, the Jews, the prophets, the character of Jesus the Christians Arabic character of Jesus, the Christians, Arabia, Mecca, character of Mahomet, Africa, Mahometans in Central Africa. The third part, "Liberty" passes through Ancient Europe, the German Invasion, the castle, the town, the church, Venice, Arab Spain, the Portuguese discoveries, the slave trade and its abolition discoveries, the slave trade and its abolition in Europe and America, the materials of human history. The fourth Part entitled "Intellect" has the following divisions— "Animal periods of the earth," "Origin and early history of man," "Summary of universal history," "The future of the human race," "The religion of reason and lave"." religion of reason and love.

The character of the work may be gathered from the following extracts-

War .- "It is not probable that war will ever absolutely cease until science discovers some destroying force, so simple in its administration, so horrible in its effects, that all art, all gallantry, will be at an end, and battle will be massacres which the feelings of mankind will be unable to endure."

"A time will undoubtedly aware the second of the second of

A time will undoubtedly arrive when all men and women will be equal, and when the love of money, which is now the root of all industry, and which, therefore, is now the root of all good will cease to animate the human mind. But changes so prodigious can only be effected in prodigous periods of

'We teach that the soul is immortal; we we teach that the soul is immortal; we teach that there is a Heaven in the ages far away; but not for us single corpuscles, not for us dots of animated jelly; but for the One of whom we are the elements, and who, though we perish, never dies, but grows from period to period and by the united efforts of single molecules called men, or of those cell-groups called nations is rejsed towards the groups called nations, is raised towards the Divine power which he will finally attain Our religion, therefore, is Virtue, our perfectibility of man. A day will come when the Eur pear God of the nineteenth century will be classed with the gods of Olympus and the Nile; when surplices and sacramental plate will be exhibited in museums; when nurses Christian mythology as they now tell them fairy tales. A day will come when the current belef in property after death (for is not existence property, and the dearest property of all?) will be accounted a strange and sel fish idea, just as we smile at the savage chief tinued in the world beneath the ground, and bines and slaves. A day will come when man-kind will be as the Family of the Forest, which lived faithfully within itself according to the Golden Rule in order that it might not die. But Love, not Fear, will unite the hunan race. The world will become a heavenly Commune to which men will bring the inmo treasures of their hearts, in which they will reserve for themselves not even a hope, n even the shadow of a joy, but will give up all for mankind. With one faith, with one all for mankind. With one faith, with one desire, they will labour together in the Sacret Cause—the extinction of disease, the extinction of sin, the perfection of genius, the per fection of love, the invention of immortality, the history of that science, as in the history the exploration of the infinite, the conquest

Whoever improved his own nature im whoever improved his own hattre improves the universe of which he is a part. He who strives to subdue his evil passions—vile remnants of the old four-footed life—and who cultivates the social affections; he who endeavours to better his condition, and to make his children wiser and happier than himself; whatever may be his motives, he will not have

It is incorrect to say 'theology is not progressive science.' The worship of ances tral ghosts, the worship of pagan dieties, the riship of a single God, are successive periods of progress in the science of Divinity. And in of all others, a curious fact may be observed. Those who overthrow an established system are compelled to attack its founders, and to show that their method was unsound, that their reasoning was fallacious, that their ex-periments were incomplete. And yet the men who create the revolution are made in th likeness of the men whose doctrines they sub The system of Ptolemy was supplanted by the system of Copernicus, yet Copernicus was the Ptolemy of the sixteenth centur In the same manner we who assail the Christian faith are the truesuccessors of the early Christians, above whom we are raised by the progress of eighteen hundred years."

t the time of the Romans and the Greeks the Christian religion was the highest to which the common people could attain. A faith such as that of the Stoics and the Sadducees could only be embraced by cultivated minds ture was then enofined to a chosen few. But now knowledge, freedom and pros perity are coverng the earth; for three cen turies past human virtue has been steadil increasing, and mankind is prepared to receive a higher faith But in order to build wε must first destroy. Not only the Syrian superstition must be attacked, but also the a strange but true title—The Martyrdom of Man. In each generation the human race has been tortured that their children might profit by their woes. Our own prosperity is founded on the agonics of the past. Is it, therefore, unjust that we also should suffer for the benefit of those

The police said that a cab had to pull out are no longer essential for the advancement of the human race. But a season of mental anguish is at hand, and through this we must pass in order that our posterity may rise. The soul must be sacrificed; the hope in immortality must die. A sweet and charming illusion must be taken from the human race, as youth nd beauty vanish never to return."

The book is a valuable one, and useful both students and teachers. It should be on the shelf in every proletarian school. If compared with such a recent text book as Professor world history (Ancient Times, 10s. 6d.), it will seen that Reade's work has been in the main confirmed by recent research. is a useful one,, and its conclusions have been broadly confirmed by subsequent research, of which the introduction by F. Legge makes

We must warn our readers that in spite of the extracts we have quoted, Reade opposed the Communists, of his day, and gave vent

The Broad High Road in Education. . Hon. C. I Party, 1d.). Trevelyan, M.P., Labour

Mr. Trevelyan says he wants not a ladder secondary education, but a broad road by which all may travel to it. He indicates that the obstacle therein lies in the general

Primer of Literary Criticism. (By G. E. Hollingworth; Cambridge University, Tutorial Press, 2s. 6d.).

This is a very useful primer which we can recommend to our readers who wish to be writers, and who are beginners in the study

FREE SPEECH AT HAMMERSMITH. Another attempt to suppress meetings.

The Grove, Hammersmith, has recently een the scene of another attempt to suppress meetings. A few words of explanation will enable 'Dreadnought' readers to understand the

The Grove runs off King Street, Hammer smith. The first meeting place is between the first and second gateway of the coal yard. From the second to the third gateway is a stand for three cabs. From the third gateway is a stand for three cabs. From the third gateway to the railway bridge is sufficient space for four meetings. From the railway bridge there is a stand for three more cabs.

In June, 1923, an attempt was made to relate, the first meeting place was made run buses, but they were withdrawn. Strange

The British Empire Union and another anti-Socialist Union speaker, who addressed meet-ings there on the Monday and Tuesday evenings in June, 1923 were not arrested; but when P. F. Meachem addressed an Anarchist ommunist meeting there on the Wednesday evening, he was arrested and sentenced to 10 days' imprisonment.

After this the buses were taken by another route, and the attempt to suppress the meetings was dropped after some intimidation. Another attempt to stop the meetings was to human nature. They lower its dignity; they arrest its development; they isolate its affected did on the 15th. About twelve peoplewere present. The meeting had just started when Sergeant Parker, 551T. came up and said that the cabs were being obstructed. Since Meachem declined to refrain from addressing the meeting he was taken into custody. At the West London Police Court, on April 16th who are to come? Famine, pestilence and war to the middle ofthe road to pass the meeting.

After a remand for a week, the case w dismissed under the probation of Offender Act. P. F. Meachem was informed that t police would take action if any more meeting ere held in that place.

Now this cab rank has always been ther and meetings have been hld in front of it over thirty years. On the average ten can night pass from the side to the middle the average five meetings a week are held

Since January 1st, 1921, Meachem has a bressed 600 meetings.

Now listen to this—600 meetings; 6,00 times cabs have pulled out and there h

Rip Van Winkle Awakes.

On the 16th April, the 601st time, Meache addressed a meeting there, and the 601st time a cab pulled out, the police bring charge of obstruction.

Stranger still a policeman named Park was delegated for the job. Who was it sa

"The Law is an ass?"

A pretext is being found for stopping meetings on the first pitch, after forty years. White Morris addressed meetings on the san

What we should like to know is-(1) Are the same people who refused allow the Lime Grove Baths for a Labor Party meeting on a Sunday behind this? (2) Are they working through a Pol Official to suppress these meetings becauthey object to the opinions expressed?

If not these, then we ask another qu

Is a certain police official acting on own responsibility, in attempting to meeting on a spot which has been a recogn meeting spot for over thirty years not the case are we to understan that the Home Secretary, of our first Labor Government is responsible for this attempt to suppress meetings on this spot?"

We appeal to all kinds of Labour Organ tions, who have used this spot for trade putes and propaganda purposes to watch and help us to fight any further attempts Remember that there have been two

They have rights who dare maint

Workers of West London, be on your go to frustrate the attempts of the tyrants to

Issued by P. F. Meachem on behalf of West London Anarchist Communist Group Meetings, the Grove, Wednesdays, 8 Saturdays 8 p.m. Sundays, 7.30 p.m.

We stand for replacement of the presystem by Communism, a classless ore society in which the land and the mean production, distribution and transport be held in common to be used freely h

There shall be no money, barter, and selling, wages, or direct reward for vices rendered. All shall give according their abilities, and take according to needs and desires.

There will be no need for stinting or ioning, because the community can pro than its members can use

All shall share the productive work. allow of abundant leisure for study, re travel, and all sorts of resear creative work, undertaken at will for

Administration of production and d those who do the work, linked ally, industrially, nationally, and Labour Party versus League of the British Commonwealth.

The Right Hon. J. R. Clynes, P.C., M.P., the Leader of the House in the Labour ernment. He is also president of the gue of the British Commonwealth.

hat is the League of the British Com

s a League which believes that the Bri-Empire is "the greatest Commonwealth world has ever seen," and that it is "held ther by an unexpressed, but deep belief in ideals of fair play s it by merit?

How is greatness to be reckoned?

any capitalist empire be considered

If the Empire is held together by fair play. the Navy, Army and Airforce?

What does Sinn Fein say?

What do the Indian non-co-operators cay?

What do the Alkali's say?
What do they say in Mesopotamia, where d Thompson tells us the Air Force is so

To pursue the service of the League Inendent of Political Parties and without achment to them" is one of the objects of League of the British Commonwealth.

it in order for a prominent member of Labour Party and Government to subscribe

The League Denounced Communism

declares that "Communism, strikes, lock-and all expressions of class war" are to lack of co-operation between capital

Is this Labour Party doctrine?
The League stands for the partnership of ployers and employees.

clares: "There is no other solution for ndustrial troubles except for the workers their employers to become equal and self-

Socialism stands for the abolition of emyers and employees and for the common ship of the land and the means of pro-n and distribution.

Mr. Clynes a Socialist?

The Nationalisation of Banking is advoby the League of the British Common alth, but the League protests: "This does imply or involve the nationalisation of industry or anything else.

The British Commonwealth" is a quarterublication issued by the League of the ish Commonwealth. This publication is oplied to all members of the League. Its tor is Mr. Frederick Thoresby. The League culates a leaflet written by Mr. Thoresby

We must be able to compete in price with the world. . . We must increase enor-usly the output per worker."

Discriminative Taxation" is advocated by Frederick Thoresby in the same leaflet.

ompanies should be entirely free of all Taxation should only be impo collected (a) either directly upon the pri-incomes of private individuals, or (b) intly as a tax upon imports (ii.) which are conal indulgences, like wines, gems, or to-co, or (ii.) which compete with goods we duce ourselves solely for home consump-, like motor cars."

re such views in accordance with Labour

the League of the British Commonwealth eague to which a member of the Labour rty can consistently belong?

CLERICAL WORK.

olunteers are needed for Clerical and Or-ising work. Comrades should write to the eadnought" office

A MEXICAN CO-OPERATIVE COLONY

(Association for Community Co-operation Mexico and South America). P.O. B 102, Times Square, New York, N.Y.

Our organization is founded upon the belief that there are innumerable people where impatient for a better society. lieve this better society can be established now, without having to wait for the majority of markind to reach the intellectual level required for this. We intend to build up Communities, along wholly co-operative lines, and have a thoroughly practical plan by which to embody our ideals in every-day life.

A difficulty that has proven to be the stumbling-block of many Communties in the past's the difference of apinion that inevitably arises among its members, and divides them intofactions that grow more and more hostile to-ward each other. We solve this problem by establishing one parent Community first, from which others can branch out with different economic structures. These will be run on Co-operative principles, and members can eventually settle themselves in that community which reflects best their personal

We have chosen Mexico as the most suitable We have chosen Mexico as the most suitable place to erect our first Community, and for many reasons. Its close proximity to the United States, its very progressive government, its understanding and approval of our aims, its friendly offers of help, its valuable land offered us for practically nothing, and the unlimited opportunities for us to choose land that is fertile, with timber, water power and other natural resources; these and many other reasons point to Mexico as the most advantageous place to settle.

We are receiving inquiries from all over the U.S.A., and are urging friends to organise groups in their own towns, so that we work together for the common good.

We are endeavouring to develop a strong organization to support the first group of pioneers of Mexico. The dues are only ten cents a week, the Initiation Fee is fifty cents, which includes the first week's dues. We have lectures, open discussions and other social activities that add to the interest of the organization

Principles-

Community ownership of the land, means of production and distribution. Free homes for members as long as they reside in the Communities without the right however, to sell, rent or deed these to others. Private ownership of personal effects such as clothes, furniture, etc. Property held by members outside the Communities to be kept distinct from that of the Communities.

(From the "Communist Life," Secretary Miss A. Hodson, 36, St. Peter's Hill, SPICE.

Whose Gratitude?

Mr. J. H. Thomas, M.P., at a luncheon of the National Federation of Iron and Steel Manufacturers said in twelve months time they would probably say-

We were suspicious of the Labour Government twelve months ago, but now let us have another election so that we can express our gratitude to them at the polls If the Labour government is so pleasant as look-out for you, fellow worker.

Mining Royalty Owners.

Lord Rusham draws £38,000 a year in mining royalties, Lord Dumaven £64,000, the Duke of Hamilton, £115,000. The Marquess of Bute £115.000, the Duke of Northu land £28,000, Lord Tredgar £84,000.

Law and Order Again.

When the Berlin Police raided the Soviet Commercial Agency, 600 police entered the building, armed with rifles, machine pistols, hand grenades, bayonets, and rubber trunche

Ruhr Mine Strike

Whilst the politicians talk of making per in Europe through the Expert Reparations Report, the class war has broken out with

The Pride of Empire.

A West Indian Negro bandsman from the British Empire Exhibition gave some coppers to British ex-servicemen playing "Angels guard thee" in the gutter.

Voluntary (?) Recruiting in the Punjab.

At Sir Michael O' Dwyer's libel action, it transpired that recruiting was quite volun-tary: The headman was only told that if he did not provide the necessary recruits he might lose his position. Accused persons were let out on bail and told to procure 75 recruits each.

It was reported that deserters were ordered to strip and sit on thistles. Investigations were dropped because the official said to have given the order was murdered.

The Class War in Italy.

One hundred and thirty-eight Communists and Anarchists who have been in custody since 1921, are being tried in Rome on account of a fracas with Government imported railway

Our Bookshop.

| | STATE OF THE PARTY | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|--|
| avage Survivals.—The story ce told in simple language by r J. Howard Moore; 143 Illus | Profestration | es- ons | |
| Cloth, p | | | |
| Paper, p | ost fr | ree 1/9 | |
| igin of Species Charles Dan | win | | |
| P | ost fr | | |
| ddle of the UniverseErnest | Haecl | kel | |
| | ost fr | ee 1/6 | |
| uxley's Lectures and Essays | 3. | | |
| P | ost fr | ee 1/2 | |
| Easy Outline of Evolution. | -Denr | nis | |
| | ost fr | | |
| story of European Morals.— | W. | E. | |
| | ost fr | | |
| e Origins of Religion Andre | w Lai | ng | |
| P | ost fr | ee 1/2 | |
| e Evolution of the Idea of | God. | | |
| | and for | | |

Happy India.—Arnold Lupton. Post free 6/31 Daedalus, or Science of the Future. J. B. S. Haldane. Post fr Post free 2/8

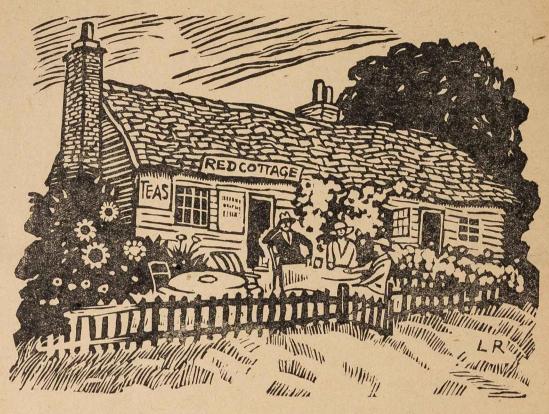

General Idea of the Revolution .-The Martyrcom of Man.-Windwood

Post free 2/8 THE EVOLUTION OF MAN. By Wilhelm Boelsche. One of the best and simplest ex planations of the evolution theory ever written. It contains many proofs of evolution discovered since Darwin wrote. Illustrate Illustrated with pictures showing the different forms of life through which man evolved. 3s.

THE EVOLUTION OF BANKING. By Robert H. Howe. 3s

ESSAYS ON THE MATERIALISTIC CONCEP-TION OF HISTORY. By Antonio Labriola.
Translated by Charles H. Kerr. 5s, 6d,

"THE RED COTTAGE," 126, High Road, Woodford Wells.
Week end Outings and Teas.

Buses 96, 10a, 40a, 34.

Workers' Dreadnought

Edited by

Sylvia Pankhurst.

W W W

A Journal of Communist Thought and Culture for Students and Thinkers.

Industrial and International News.

To be obtained at all Newsagents.

WEEKLY: ONE PENNY.

152, Fleet Street, London, E.C.4.

SPECIAL NEXT WEEK.
Insanitary Church Schools,
The Heresy of Bishop Brown

Forthcoming Meetings.

Peckham Rye, Sunday, May 18th, 7.30. Regents Park, Sunday, May 25th, 7.30.

Hyde Park every Sunday, 3 p.m. Speakers—Sylvia Pankhurst, N. Smyth, J. Welch, W. Hall, J. Grove, and others.

Printing Press, metal type, accessories, 22s 6d. Particulars, W. Webster, 291, Normanton Road, Derby.

Irish Workers' League.

Sunday, May 18th, 7.30. Labour Centre, 124, Walworth Road (near Elephant).

Sylvia Pankhurst—What Communism would means to all classes ropen discussion.

More agents are required for selling the Workers' Dreadnought in shops, at meetings, on Street pitches. Write for terms, posters, etc. to 'the Manager, Workers Dreadnought 152, Fleet Street, E.C.4.

AGENTS FOR THE DREADNOUGHT

Do YOU want to learn The Real Facts about the struggle of the Working Class in Ireland and the general happenings in that country?

If so

Read the "Irish Worker."
The paper that tells the truth.

Obtainable from 17, Gardiner Place, Dublin, from the "Dreadnought" office, 152, Fleet Street, E.C., etc, Trom the Dreathough.

Street, E.C., etc.,

Voluntary sellers wanred everywhere.

Dublin Office would put you in touch.

IMPORTANT.

You believe in the policy of the "Workers Dreadnought," and there are many people who think like you who would like to have the paper, only they have not heard of it. Will you help us to bring it to their notice by sending us a donation towards advertising it? We need a minimum of 25s. a week for this.

Read EIRE The Irish Nation

Weekly Review of Irish Republican Opinio

PRICE TWOPENC

On Sale Saturdays

THE "ONE BIG UNION BULLETIN"

The One Big Union seeks to organise the worker on class lines. Read about it.

10/- per year; 5/- six months.

Plebs Buildings, 54 Adelaide Street, Winnipes

YOUR BUBSCRIPTION

A blue mark in this space indicates that your subscription is now due.

The high cost of production of the paper necessitates prompt payment.

Published by E. Sylvia Pankhurst, at 152, Ple Street, London, E.C.4, and printed by the Agen Press, Ltd. (T.U.), at 1, Pemberton Row, Gou Square, London, E.C.4.