[ALL] TERFS ARE CRASSES!

AN INJURY TO ONE IS AN INJURY TO ALL! A London squatter has been hunted down by police, arrested, detained, stalked, harassed, trolled and smeared all over the internet and national media... and why? -- All because somewhere, somehow things allegedly got "heated" at a political gathering recently. That's right, all you ACAB/AJAB-spouting squatters out there: TERFs have used journalists and cops to bully trans squatters while they and their friends write long open letters* talking about the disagreements in 'our movement'. We haven't heard any statements from anti-authoritarian TERFs disowning the use of the legal system and the media in this way.

WONDERING WHAT YOU CAN DO?

Try to inform yourself about the tactics TERFs use. And if you rly want, you can help us spread our stupid slogan all over town alongside all the other sweeping generalisations we know and love!

GENDER IDENTITY WATCH?!

That's right. If you thought these pricks couldn't get any worse, they went and got their own version of fucking Redwatch all set up and chugging away. Hopefully knowing that will get Some Manarchists off of that fence.

WHAT IS A TERF? TERFs are Trans-Exclusionary Radical Feminists. But to say it like a real fucking person; they're generally old-guard feminists unwilling to share their space in the "Oppression Olympics" with other marginalised women for fear of... well, we aren't quite sure really? The last TERF we asked mumbled some MAGA-esque shit about "womens spaces" and "men in dresses!". Generally they seem to be more preoccupied with attacking Trans-Women over strange imagined abuses than they are with tackling actual fucking examples of patriarchy. They're most commonly found sharing their hate speech from the safety blanket of anonymity provided by the internet, but this whole "GRA"[see next page] thing increasingly has them squirming out of the woodwork and into whatever dodgy venue is fucking ignorant enough to host their BS "debates"

THERES MORE THAN ONE WAY TO PUNCH A TERF

Punch the TERF inside you. Ask what it is about your space that makes TERFs think 'maybe I'm welcome here'. Punch holes in their arguments. Be ready to explain in plain words why they're wrong and why it matters.

Do something to make your space more welcoming for your trans squatmates/comrades. Ask what it is about your space that makes trans & gender-nonconforming people think 'maybe I'm not welcome here.'

Remember there's a trans closet & some ppl are in it all the time. Defy the cis/trans binary, sabotage gender, consensually explore unscripted desires. We're winning if we're stronger & sexier & having more fun...

*apparently something happened at the bookfair this year, you can probably read about it on the internet

WTF IS THE GRA?? The GRA (Gender Recognition Act) is a law that governs the rights of Trans people within the UK legal system. As it currently stands, you gotta be over 18, be subjected to humiliating psychiatric bollocks, and have "lived as your gender for 2 years". Whatever the fuck that means! The thing that's gotten the TERFs all riled up is a suggested change to that law, which is an attempt to dump some of that gatekeeping and lower the age people are able to access having their ID changed.

WHAT DOES THAT MEAN?? Essentially, all this really means is that Trans teenagers get to change what gender is shown on their ID earlier and without going through all the trauma of having to interact with ignorant, patronising doctors and without having to perform whatever regressive ideas about gender your particular quack expects to see. [I've a hard enough time gettin' out of bed and pissing out the tyskie in the morning. Fuck am I shaving for a Drs visit].

WHY DO WE CARE?? We. don't. fucking. Care!. All this act does is make it easier to interact with the state. Adds you to whatever creepy-arse Govt. trans database exists out there and maybe, just maybe stops the bouncer down the pub from giving you that fucking look.

WHY DO TERFS CARE?? They care cuz they're boring pricks who want the state to police gender even more strictly than they already do/in line with their anti-trans view. They reckon giving teens the ability to make decisions for themselves is a woeful danger to them. They think that vaginas, periods and motherhood are the sole arbiters of womanhood. They're not self-critical enough to see just how they're replicating patriarchy within their community. They're just plain NASTY.

Whatever. Join us in the struggle against all gender and all laws, whether trans-exclusionary or not. Down with identity politicians - especially TERFs!

Fire to the gender neutral prison!

BASTARD WATCH

MIRANDA YARDLEY

The Quisling

Our mate Miranda is the tokenised piece of shit lapdog rolled out by the TERFs when they think having a self-described transsexual on side will benefit them. Miranda used to think she was a transwoman, but after a while, she decided that in fact she was not. She realised that she was a man who enjoyed wearing dresses.

We think that's great for her... except she seems to think that her experiences are the same as everyone elses and takes that arrogance into THE FUCKING HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT, all whilst bullying, stalking and harassing transwomen to the point of self harm and suicide.

Often seen wearing a big stupid floppy velvety hat. If seen she should definitely NOT have her hat stolen.

DR. JULIA LONG

Guardian Writer, Academic, Smug Twat

Julia rants about the dangers of "transgenderism" from the lofty height of her respectability and hosts events that liken trans folk to "big pharma's cash cow" (despite the relative cheapness of estrogen... which as we all know is typically just repurposed menopause medications...). She likens all transwomen to rapists. She's a known SWERF (like a TERF, but attacking sex workers too!)
