OFFICE OF ELECTIONS

99 WHITEHALL, LONDON tel 01-246 8041 telex Offelec

Dear Elector,

Pursuant to the order made under the regulations promulgated by the Secretary Of State, in accordance with the powers vested in him under the Representation of the People Act 1982, dated April 1st 1983, you are required by law to comply with the following instructions:

All persons intending to vote in the General Election of June 9th this year are required to read the following statement. Additionally they should affix their signature to the space provided at the foot of said statement. The signed document should be taken to the polling station and handed into the Returning Officer before voting.

"I, the undersigned, hereby declare my willingness to surrender all power over the decisions affecting my life, to my elected representative, of whatever political complexion, by allowing him/her to choose for me in all matters.

I agree to make a mark on a piece of paper and then forget about the fact that I have let myself be swindled by the system in which the vested interests of the politicians and big bosses are one and the same.

By signing this statement and putting my little cross next to the name of someone I don't even know, I acknowledge that I am merely the slave of others, doomed to slog out my guts for the rest of my days; or be doled out a pittance of State Benefit, so long as I don't cause any trouble by questioning what they do in my name.

I declare that by voting, I am perfectly happy to have my very own nuclear weapons (that I will never be allowed near) and agree to their being aimed at ordinary people, like myself, in other countries.

The cross (X), also means that the name next to it will be among the favoured few to survive the nuclear holocaust, in a secret underground shelter, while I die horribly with my loved ones.

In conclusion, I understand the implications of voting; that I am signing away my freedom to power-hungry bureaucrats and rich civil servants, and allowing them to use the money that I pay in taxes, for the purpose of keeping me from taking back that freedom."
