

From AI to polluted beaches, things are increasingly shit. But as new shitscapes manifest, we should not be fooled into thinking this is brand new shit. This shit has been around for a long time and people have devised ways of resisting it. We are in danger of forgetting our anti-shit history leaving us at the mercy of both the insanely wealthy shit merchants who want to keep us isolated, unhappy and ignorant, and by the moderately prosperous who undermine any real challenge to the shitus quo, offering us a few wet wipes while building their own private sewer systems...

Est. 1995

The Freedom Shop

160 Riddiford Street, Newtown,
Te Whanganui-ā-Tara
freedomshopaotearoa@gmail.com

Published by The Freedom Shop,
Te Whanganui-ā-Tara, 2026.

freedomshopaotearoa.blogspot.com

Sam
Buchanan

Life in a world designed to fail

“Life must be released, however great the cost and desperate the struggle... The threads with which the Lilliputs of Monopoly have bound it are only threads. Gulliver has only to collect his wits and rise’

– William C. Owen.
