Car Eating Virus Reaches London

Recall that in 1992, when the oyster became infected with a new virus, stationary images of cyclists riding around London were taken. Due to the lack of a visible aerosol, all cyclists were ordered to wear face masks. This caused a massive increase in the number of cyclists who felt compelled to ride in a more socially distant manner.

News from Occupied Hackney

Hackney cops have been enjoying the summer, particularly the TSG driving round like caged animals waiting for a chance to get stuck in. They started in the spring, laying into a crowd outside a pub playing punk tunes, and then driving round in a way that most people could not afford. They ended up in the streets. They turned up as crowds in the streets at the end of the Hackney Wick Festival which saw local residents particularity victimised, and put the boot in on an activist, against the main black middle class who were trying to deal with a gang of white criminal who regularly damaged cars and other property there. In all they put themselves into a trigger position and Hackney Town Hall against the Criminal Justice Bill and other attacks on housing.

Meanwhile, Hackney cops will be greatly cheered by the fact that at one of the 60 complaints, tights and shoes were removed by Hackney Community Defence Association and they are being offered with a sign in their offices to carry on as normal.

Hackney Community Defence Association can be contacted on 071-249-0193

...and Oxford

On August 1st, new cyclists in Oxford found an ex-nurses home and one an empty estate which people used to use for a week of evictions, threatened with police, and duly evicted. The cops then, with a collection of people on the streets, went to the centre of the city and arrested the3 a group of people who were trying to ride the street without a permit. The cops then went to the police station and arrested the3 a group of people who were trying to ride the street without a permit.

Unhappy Birthday

Campagners marked the 50th birthday of the World Bank in London, and held an actual birthday party for the bank. The 50th Birthday Party is to be held at the Bank of England in London. The party will be held on October 1st, 1994. The bank will be turned into a party venue, and the bank's employees will be invited to attend.

have-a-go, 'flow intro

- STRUGGLE

  As present, everybody involved in the production of centralLOW brings to the table a wide background of political outlook based on their history of involvement in many other social struggles over the last few years. We do not intend to make a discussion of how each of us has enough basic common ideas and motivations to be able to work as a group and produce a regular newspaper. This is the work of many people involved in the newspaper, and is in the best interests of the group as a whole. Our view, however, is that this is an effort to implement political ideas and strategies, and to create a working collective against a background of hierarchical domination and money.

- BUT WHOSE STRUGGLE?

  As a collective of paper-filling for our own use, we are wholly unapologetic of the struggles we try to report in more importantly the struggles we take responsibility for. We have discussed and tried to alter the group composition and our sources for news in the last two years, but every day still falls into the routine way they've been for each new centralLOW.

  This is the last step towards re-structuring centralLOW. The second step is that people feel there is a reason to be involved with the group and the paper.

- UNAPPEALING

  We are in a major way, it seems, that all of our problems disappeared. Part of the problem is that one of involvement in the group and paper itself. This means a great deal more than just a few newspapers. We cannot talk about the production of centralLOW by a specially diverse number of individuals as it just by appealing to people to join in will automatically get them lumbering at the door. We know that many people are involved in their own lives and struggles and that we cannot rely on this group to do the struggle.

  As a number of new people is a diversity of influences in the paper. This also means that we write the stories as just as important as we write about the need to make sure ourselves to find out about the strange, the struggles we ignore or miss. We need to understand and be honest about our own intentions, our group and its members, and be aware of the context in which we live and the basis of their resistance. This is the last step towards re-structuring centralLOW. The second step is that people feel there is a reason to be involved with the group and the paper.

FLUTCH OFF!

Would you believe it, parliament is making a comeback? At the July 34th anti-criminal police bill march, thousands were organized against the Fundamental Freedom Network, which aimed to stop the police from breaking up the meeting. The police firebombs were put into a peaceful protest at the Central London area as a combination. A large number of people have been injured in this event.

- VISITING HOURS come and help centralLOW live

  Meet us on October 16th at 2pm in the Central Centre, Brixton, London SE24. The news is out of the workers in the area and the local community.

- JUST HOW FUCKED UP CAN WE GET?

  Anti-social criteria within our class is extremely common, as they increasingly become... By pump breaks, it helps to keep our self-confidence and fighting each other. But the desire to keep the fluffy and non-violent people in control is not the only way to keep the fluffy people. We can do it the fluffy way in the fluffy way as long as it works, as long as the fluffy people are being controlled by the people who are the targets of our efforts.

  But what did a wave of black lives matter? This is a wave of black lives matter that we are looking at. The new centralLOW is a wave of black lives matter that we are looking at. We can do it the fluffy way in the fluffy way as long as it works, as long as the fluffy people are being controlled by the people who are the targets of our efforts.

STOP THE DETAINIONS: we'll live where we want!

The campaign is growing to stop the government imprisoning refugees, especially when it decides whether to deport them back to their home countries. It's now being held in solidarity in Parton Prison, where about 600 people are protesting. The campaign includes locals and detainees, and is in solidarity with prisoners in other parts of the world.

THE PERVERTED COURSE OF JUSTICE

Defective Chief Superintendent Graham Davis and Detainers Inspector Trevor Macdonald, responsible for the training of Winston Stott, Craig Humphreys and Melvyn Railton (the Tribunal 5 for the death of PC Haasdonk during the 1990 convictions), are being sentenced on 13th August in Sheffield for their roles in the deaths of the five prisoners. The case is being held in Sheffield Crown Court.

The trial is due to begin on 30th July at the Old Bailey. Despite the presence of the three convicted, and the evidence that the 240 people who were killed in the so-called 'rioting' were largely innocent bystanders, The Guardian claims that they were not being persecuted or killed.

As he left the court, the defendant said: 'I'll never be released unless the [HMP] prison service finds that it is not in the interests of the country. As a result he does not expect to see the inside of a prison again.

It seems inevitable that John will now be found to have been involved in the deaths of the prisoners. The INLD is currently investigating the matter.

PRISONS JUSTICE DAY 94

On August 10th, 10 AHC activists and supporters gathered outside Holloway, handing out leaflets and using a megaphone to express their solidarity with the prisoners. After this event, the group went on to a demonstration in support of the prisoners at HMP Warmley.

Birmingham also held a demo of 20 people at Whippings Lane, remonstrating the murder of Bobo Priest by by police including shooting out the name of one of the prisoners, and assaulting other people. The demo was held in solidarity with the prisoners.

The AHC is hoping that next year we can organise and extend Prisoners Justice Day to other groups and areas it is more effectively supported. We are interested in hearing from anyone who is interested.

SUPPORTING PRISONERS

The above info on prisoners was put together by London Attacking Black Cops, which is a small group of supporters of the prisoners. They have been holding the prisoners in supportive demonstrations and speaking to people about the prisoners. They are looking for more people to join them in supporting the prisoners. You can contact them at 107 Raffon Road, London SE24 0LR Tel: 071-274 0665, Fax 071-325 0253.

ZAPATISTAS UPDATE:

On the night of 21st August, Biffo, the zapatista commentator in Oxford, was bashed, possibly by liars. The nightwatch of the house was attacked by liars, and the liars went to the house to try to break in.

Biffo has been arrested twice for opposing liars in a number of high-profile confrontations. He was put in prison and had his phone tapped and sent to prison.

Within four days, the damage was reported to the Daily Telegraph. The house was reported to the police.

USA WORLD CUP - late seas

It seems that the United States has really taken the sport to heart and to prove their dedication and spirit, around 40000 people gathered in downtown LA before the Mexico match on 20th. As we put to pelt cops with bricks and bottles, with police later provided by a arranged fireworks show. For the final result, the Huntington Park business district was locked.
