ONE MOTHER MURDERED

BEATEN UP

KIDNAPPED

Last night, Sunday October 8th, the police suffered another massive defeat as they tried to storm the Broadwater Farm Estate. For the first time in half a century the young rioters managed to kill a police officer and to detain 220 others in hospital.

P.c. Blakelock died as a direct reprisal for the death of Cynthia Jarrett a 64 year old black mother, in a cop raid on her home. For though she died of a heart attack, her family maintain that the police pushed her over and then refused to help, claiming that she was "shamming".

The seige of Broadwater began after a public meeting on the estate about Mrs Jarrett's death decided to march on Tottenham Police Station at about 6pm. The march ran into hundreds of police officers trying to seal off the area. It was the culmination of years of racist harassment, recent raids, arrests and a growing tension following Handsworth and Brixton. The death of Cynthia Jarrett was the final straw.

About 800 people began to stone police lines in Mount Pleasant Rd, cars were set on fire as barricades. The crowd then retreated into Willan Rd, Adams Rd and Griffin Rd, the only entrances to the 'award-winning' estate. It was then that fierce fighting broke out. We heard it on the police radio and set out from Brixton to try and help, as the people of Broadwater Farm Estate were totally surrounded and being subjected to attack from all sides.

The scene resembled a Hieronymus Bosch painting as the police repeatedly charged the barricades but were forced back with hails of petrol bombs towards the Post Office which had been looted and put to the torch!

The estate itself is built like a fortress with walkways linking all of the blocks and towers. The police charged again and again but the locals put up some furious resistance, utilising catapults, molotovs, and driverless cars, their accelerators wedged hard down, carrering at police lines!

Then, just as Her Majestys Finest prepared a final assault on the rebels, a blazing supermarket distracted them in Willan Rd. It was during the rush to put the fire out that the shotgun opened up from the flats at 9.45pm, injuring cops and the ever present journalists.

More charges followed this, and people retreated.

Meanwhile in Griffin and Adams Rd's pigs were falling like ninepins as they were ordered to attack (much like the Charge of the Light Brigade). There was an explosion in Adams Rd, one cop was hit by what appeared to be a rifle shot that went right through his shield. Others were hit by blocks of concrete from the walkways. The gunner opened up again in Adams Rd plugging another pig and a Daily Mail reporter.

We arrived in the area about 10pm, but it took us an hour to slip through the huge police presence and find the back way into Broadwater Farm. Huge white towerblocks loomed ahead, animated by the flames of burning cars. Loads of masked kids were wandering around with mollies and even stolen police riotshields. The supermarket and shops on the estate had been looted and it appeared that most locals supported the rioters. Though some were pissed off about their cars. (Press stories of terrified old people are bullshit - the only terrified were those private house owners on the edge of the estate.)

We had a good look round, but we could see 1000's of police ready to charge, and the resistance seemed just about over. We then left the estate for fear of being trapped, though some stayed on to fight. The police came in, in fact, at 4.15 am.

Back in Lordship Lane some skips were set on fire and in Tottenham High Rd there were attacks on a bank and some shops, but literally 1000's of cops were out, looking for blood. A shortage of vehicles, due to the successes of the rioters, resulted in cops arriving in all manner of transports, commandeering glazing vans, hired vans, lorries, fire engines, and even ambulances!

REVENGE IS SWEET

As we emerged onto the High St, pigs started leaping out of convoy vehicles, charging and beating up passers-by at random. One young man from North London was badly injured and lay bleeding for half an hour before an ambulance arrived. Several others got hit as police charged again. At midnight, heavy rain set in, but it wasn't to dampen the news that a cop was dead and there was jubilation in the area. "That will teach the evil bastards!" said one black youth.

The riot had been contained but we could still claim a sweet victory on a vengeful dawn!

DEATH RIOT at TOTTENHAM

About 10pm the supermarket in Willan Road was still blazing fiercely, the fire brigade were being 'protected' by a gang of Filth in full riot gear. One was P.C. Blakelock. Blakelock, the "nice bobby" of the Press, drew his baton and started wading in to the small group of black kids watching the fire, screaming racial abuse. The kids defended themselves by pulling knives and several of the pigs were hurt. P.C. Blakelock was slashed across the neck and bled to death on the way to hospital. A hero and a Martyr to the press. To us a racist bastard who deserved it.

One thing that impressed me profoundly during the recent uprisings was that if the po-lice radio is monitored a lot of vital information about kop activities can be obtained - but only if you know what the fuck they're talking about! This series aims to teach street fighters the kops' own radio codes to help them to strike where the kops ain't. We do not pretend the information here is the complete story - we hope it's accurate though. We have simply listened in to broadcasts and used a bit of common sense. If our reader knows something we don't, or spots a mistake, we would be grateful for that person's help

Some Common Call Signs

MP Incident Room New Scotland Yard
CO New Scotland Yard
GT Greenwich Training Centre - the Riot Channel - 98.5m FM
IL Lippits Hill Helicopter Airfield (a helicopter is a 99)
AD Airports Division - Heathrow/Gatwick
TD Traffic Division

Personal Call Signs

Chief Officers have their own call signs for instance the moronic Alec Marnoch of Lambeth, based at Lambeth Central at Pratt Walk, is called Lima one. Mike one is the Chief of Southwark etc. Metro One is the top brass at Scotland Yard.

Division Call Signs

D 11 Firearms Division - the ones who will fire the plastic bullets and CS gas
C 11 Diplomatic Protection
C 13 Anti Terrorist Squad

The Special Patrol Group

SPG units all have the call sign 'Uniform'. So if your little bit of fun is attended by a 'Uniform unit' you are about to have the shit kicked out of you by the infamous SPG. These are also sometimes referred to as A9 units as they are administered by the New Scotland Yard section A9. SPG cop numbers are now prefixed by CO (the call code for Scotland Yard) instead of the area letter.

SPG Vehicle Call Signs: The first letter of an SPG vehicle code is always 'Uniform'. The numbers that follow denote general unit, and specific vehicle. For instance: Uniform one one one:- the first number is the unit, the second we aren't sure about but is probably to do with the senior cop on board, the third refers to the specific van. (With the SPG the term unit has a specific meaning, rather than a general term meaning any car or van). Unit one would consist of three or more protected vans, U111, U112, U113 etc, plus support vehicles such as cars and hire vans. The Inspector in charge of the unit travels in one of the cars usually, and has the call sign 5-4. So for Unit one, the Inspector's call sign is 'UNIFORM ONE FIVE FOUR'. SPG vans have their unit number above the right-hand rear door and often over the windscreen. Support vehicles like hire vans have a sign with their unit code stuck in the back window.

Cop Communications

District Support Units: DSUs are riot cops shield trained, potty trained, helmeted beweaponed thugs. Every main po-lice station has at least one DSU. Lima Delta - (Brixton) has FIVE DSUs. Each DSU spends one day per week at GT (Greenwich Training Centre) for training and/or standby- so GT always has a reserve to draw on.

Vehicle Codes

Serial Large green busses full of PC porker beat cops, taken from beat duty. Control will ask what the Serial's STATUS is and will receive a numerical answer, such as 'one one twenty'. This refers to the rank of the senior officer, and number of constables.

So 'one one twenty':

Inspector	Sergeant	Constables
one	one	twenty or :

zero	one	ten

if the inspector has left with 10 constables, leaving the sergeant in charge of the other ten. Control will ask if the Serial is 'enbussed' or 'debussed' - to see if it is ready for instant deployment or not. Another regular question has two distinct forms:

a) Are you (the Serial) EQUIPPED? - this means 'are your officers equipped with riot gear?'

b) Is your VEHICLE equipped? - this means 'does your bus have windscreen grills and window shields?'

These above are usually put to stationary vehicle not yet deployed- a further question to a vehicle proceeding to a call 'Is your vehicle PROTECTED?' -to ascertain whether the vehicle is suitable to deal with a riot call.

These questions are also asked of other vehicles but usually the vehicles' call sign will give a precise description of its type to the controller. For instance: Oscar units are the large Rover Traffic Cars. Echo units are Landrover Traffic Cars. Engineering Unit: mechanics or other specialists. For example; Engineering unit 2-1 is a VIDEO UNIT!!!

We would be grateful for any help readers can give for this little series, particularly the area and station codes- (Lambeth is 'Lima' Southwark is 'Mike', Tottenham is 'Yankee'). Also does anyone know what the numbers carried on po-lice vehicle roofs signify? They are obviously for the helicopters' use but do not seem to relate to normal vehicle codes. Any info on CID codes will be very gratefully received! Happy listening!

VICTORY ON THE STREETS

Saturday afternoon in Brixton, and we hear of the brutal police shooting in the back of a woman in Normandy Road..This time the racist pigs have gone too far! We take a carload and drive down there, in the hope of having a go at the bastards. As we arrive we see a small crowd heading off towards the police station and we follow. We hear that some journalist reptiles have already been beaten up..Good one! At the pig sty there is a rush round the side and furious arguments begin with the cops blocking the gate. The Crescent was filling up as a dozen more cops filed in to protect the gate. A top cop started to make a speech..then the first bottle sailed over and smashed over his head, showering the gang of state thugs (police) with glass. A wild cheer broke out as the cops ran inside. Cops on the roof dived for cover as a hail of stones and bottles began. We all rushed to the front, fearing a trap. More stones were thrown and police windows shattered. A group of black women urged us on, running right up to the front door, flinging stones and bottles.

VICTORY

The cowardly police were nowhere to be seen. We could hardly believe our eyes. It was just after 6.00pm, the rapidly growing crowd was spilling back among the packed traffic and pedestrians. We had just started the Brixton Anti Police Riot, 1985!! We saw 2 riot vans in Gresham road, found stones and flung them. One van unloaded and the filth had to run like rabbits around to the side door, the other fled in a shower of bricks from the black youth. There was a big huddle on the corner, as the black women urged the men on, then a big group rushed right across Brixton Road, through the traffic, and stormed the petrol station in Stockwell Avenue..BURN THE BASTARDS OUT!..while a second posse kept stoning the Station, we could see the police cowering from the windows. In the same moments a gang of youths charged into a supermarket right opposite and emerged with the till, spilling money about..The looting had begun! In the next five hours the people of Brixton ripped off almost a million pounds worth of consumer goods! A minute later the first flames, a car had been set alight in Brixton Road, the first attempt to stop police reinforcements getting through.

At that point I left, rushing home to get hats and masks for our group. The word was spreading through Brixton like wildfire..RIOT NOW..THE COPS ARE ON THE RUN!..

ANARCHY

When I got back I saw people laughing with joy. The cops had tried to stop it, bringing out a line of riot police, a sellout 'Community Leader' and a priest in front of the Station. A top cop introduced the priest.. "Listen to him, he is your leader" he said, passing the megaphone. At that moment some genius threw the first petrol bomb, almost setting them on fire. As the police and sellout shits ran for cover Brixton Police Station was petrol bombed, one even got inside but was extinguished. The police were unable to enter the area, as all hell broke loose, in the High Street, down Brixton Road, up Gresham Road to Coldharbour, up Tulse Hill and Acre Lane, through the Market and up Railton Road.

As we donned our scarves I saw a huge fire blazing down Brixton Road near Normandy, Literally dozens of cars were burning, beyond lines of Riot Pigs defending their Station. We met up with more anarchists, the High Street was still a police free zone, traffic was still coming in as, laughing and yelling, the late shoppers began a looting spree. Burtons, Marks and Sparks, Dunn's, then there was a great rush for the jewellers and the arcades. It was wonderful to see it, we lent a hand in smashing Barclays Bank symbol of racism and black oppression, before the police charges and serious fighting began.

LOOT WHAT IS OURS

The tactics of the rioters were brilliant and inventive, older black men in track suits advising the younger posses, often chasing back reinforcements and lines of riot cops, rescuing people trapped by the murdering racists, leaving lightly defended barricades to string them out thin. Blacks and whites fought side by side from the beginning, but there was plenty of suspicion..looking out for the plain clothes police..some white bystanders and even some activists were mugged (though the majority were against this action of a few kids). Less than one fifth of the actual fighters were white. The few bigger white gangs were accepted in when it was clear we were intent on attacking the police murderers. Reporters, photographers and TV crews were just treated as police..hundreds have done prison because of their activities in previous riots!

NO GO AREA

We cut round into Stockwell Road, which was a No Go Area, and helped some young blacks turning over cars and setting them alight. A few cars were still driving innocently in from Lander Road. Those who refused to stop or turn were bricked to bits. I saw white people abandoning their cars, some with their hands in the air. Then a line of riot vans appeared, one got through, swerving through the burning cars amid a hail of bricks. The others held back, as we worked up courage to charge, though we were few our fury was great. "South Africa, South Africa" a kid screamed, as we charged screaming against the pride of the British State, chasing the bastards right back towards Stockwell Tube Station.....

RIOT ON

Brixton in flames: police shooting of black woman sparks new riots

DANCING IN THE STREETS

LATER..We have visited several friends houses to rest, smoke and drink looted beer. We have heard the stories of sadistic violence, savage beatings, and arrests in hand to hand fighting with the pigs. One man has a broken jaw and six broken teeth, another has his head sliced open. What we really need is guns! Detouring towards the Railton area we come to Acre Lane, and walk into a running riot as a huge crowd retreats from Central Brixton. Acre Lane is smashed up, including a DHSS office and a Lambeth Council building (Who Cares?), a Church reading room, a bank, the petrol station, off licence, etc, etc. Half way to Clapham police attack from both sides as we try to barricade, everyone escapes into side streets, but we are cut off from the main crowd which goes towards Brixton Hill. We stop at another party (there are parties starting everywhere) for further refreshments and tales of glory.

MUCH LATER..We reach Tulse Hill and meet up with the local squatters..The Post Office has been burned down! The Tory club has been attacked with 40 Tories inside, 3 of their cars have been burned as barricades and the building nearly set alight and smashed up! The hated Housing office has been attacked and looted! But the pigs have arrived in force and seized control of the area. On to Effra Parade and Railton Road, where the rioters fought bravely against overwhelming odds. Through Muggers Alley to the Barrier Block, but the filth have taken over Coldharbour Lane. Its after midnight but still small groups are lighting cars, stoning the police and retreating into the maze of flats. Only in Brixton Road/Normandy Road is the riot still in full swing, but its impossible to get down there. We climb the Barrier block and amuse ourselves flinging stones at passing police vans. Below us at Barkers Corner is total destruction, where a looted furniture shop was torched to try and stop the pigs getting through, and the whole corner has burned to the ground. One floor above it was squatted and our friends have lost everything (which was fuck all anyway). Another flat was occupied legally by the loathsome Smeggy of King Kurt (who did a benefit for the miners scabs). Coldharbour Lane has gone quiet, though there was fierce fighting there again on Sunday. Off we go to the next squat for more refreshments!

FUCK OFF PIGS

STILL LATER.

We pass through Central Brixton, on route to another party. The place is like a smouldering war zone, with 1000's of filth standing around. We're all still high with our marvellous victory. But we hear tales of random police revenge..prolonged screaming from pig vans rocking with the blows, dogs set on people in the vans, bystanders beaten to shit and left for dead. Its too dangerous to be out..the racist murderers are back in control. Very few if any of the rioters were arrested, but over the 2 days the pigs took nearly 250 people hostages and charged them with whatever came to mind....

The only solution is to get rid of the police altogether and protect our own communities..But to do that we will need a revolution!

CHIMPANZEEES CH CHATTERING COMMITTEE

PUBLIC MEETING

On Tues 2nd Oct the Police Consultative Committee had its regular meet-ning at Lambeth Town Hall. Its an open meeting in which the Fuzz can say openly to the public whatever lies they can think up and confidently forget it the next day. The Committee has been a sellout rubber stamp for the pigs for ages and everyone knows it.

It proved to be the last meeting of the Police Consultative Committee.

They started it in a small hall..so that many people were locked out. Almost as the meeting started 2 blokes and a woman stood up calmly, took the mikes from the table and threw them on the floor and threw them on the floor. Water was thrown at the Chairman and everyone was cheerfully screaming, 'Put him behind bars'.

The unanimous feeling was that the Copper who shot the lady (Mrs Groce) should be charged with attempted murder, some suggested those with him on the stupid raid should be done for aiding and abetting.

All the head cop (Ch.Insp.'Shit for Brains'Marnoch) could say was that there will be an inquiry and he couldn't say more till the inquiry is complete.

MEN IN BLACK

Therer was a crashing and banging, louder and louder. Then the door broke open and those locked out came in. we then decided to move to a bigger hall. By then we were 250 to 300 people. The chairman was given a Vote of No Confidence, and we the people took over the meeting ourselves. When MarpoX (the head pig) came to speak people suggested he stood up. He said he didn't mind, jokingly adding that he'd make a better target. With that someone threw something at him, (unfortunately missing) and everyone cracked up laughing.

SHIT FOR BRAINS

One of the many highlights came owhen one of Shit For Brains' assistant pigs practically stripped off, and declared himself again a member of the public and pleaded for one more chance...The laughter could be heard in Clapham!

ORGANISE

One woman made a motion to kick the 3 idiots out of the hall so we could have a real meeting, adding that to have a meeting with the police present was dangerous. Sadly there wasn't enough support for this. Half an hour later, after 3 hours of letting the Filth know what we thought of their 'Community Policing', the same lady got up and said, "There's nothing more to say, lets all leave together", which we all did. Leaving the Police Consultative Group sitting there, lucky to be alive.

The Revolution makes its own leaders.

A few days later it was announced that the Police Consultative Committe had decided to disband!

VICTORY ON THE STREETS

SHOT IN FRONT OF HER KIDS

I THINK?

Saturday morning, crawled out of bed at midday, and went out to do my shopping. The town centre was very tense. If you stopped still anywhere for a minute, all you could hear was people talking about Cherry Groce. People were saying that she had been shot twice in the back, while running away. I went into a department store and bought myself a scarf, just to be on the safe side. There almost no cops about. I saw four, walking together in the market, but they quickly went back to the station. Everyone was staring at them, and a few people were shouting "Murderers" at them. A car backfired nearby, and they nearly jumped out of their skins!

I went back home and turned on the Po-Lice radio. Every channel was alive with orders for Units and Serials (Riot Vans) to assemble at 'Lambeth Traffic'. Dogs, Horses, were being ordered, and all the vans were being kitted out with shields, helmets, mesh on the windows, etc. On hearing all this, I rushed down to the Po-Lice station. There was a fair sized crowd outside, about five to six hundred, and getting bigger. There were a lot of people masked up, and black women were shouting abuse at the station. I met a friend, and we started to pull up paving stones, throwing down again to get small, manageable lumps. I filled my pockets, masked up, and had a brick in each hand. Swallowing my fear, I joined a posse, and about ten of us ran over the road and started to brick the station. I stopped to see my rocks strike home and then from out of nowhere came a volley of mollies. They hit the station in a burst of yellow flame, and I saw a couple go through the broken windows and set alight the offices. The crowd burst out with cheering, and almost everyone started to mask up.

At this stage, cops in full riot gear started to pour out of the station, like ants when you kick their nest. They lined up with shields and we started bricking. Vans poured in. There was still four lanes of traffic going by, all the drivers crouched at the wheels, as a rainbow of bricks and bottles showered over the top of them...very surreal.

STOCKWELL RIOT

After about half an hour, we were charged, and we fell back to the rollerskate park on Stockwell Road. We overturned a couple of cars to block the riot vans, and we torched them. Traffic was still trying to get through.....

We were very careful about which cars we should use, so we only picked a couple of wrecks. At one stage, black and white united, we had a half hour discussion on the ethics of car burning. We kept picking ones to block the last of the lanes, but neighbours would come out and argue with us, and we'd start again.

The argument was ended when I stepped out into a lane of traffic, stuck out my hand, and stopped a Green Line coach. I went round the side, opened the emergency door, got in, grabbed the driver by the shoulders, and assisted him out. We parked it across two lanes, amidst much laughter. Was this for real? Here I was commandeering a fucking coach! Later it got burnt out, but at that point we were charged, and we went further up Stockwell Road, to do some selective looting..... black shops were left alone, although later on in the day, the distinction was forgotten. I chased around the back streets for a while, lobbing a few bricks here and there. At one point about seven cops were lined up behind their shields, blocking off one road. Along with a group of black guys, we got a rhythm going... "All go, All come back." We'd grab a couple of bricks, run, throw, retreat. This soon got pretty tiring, and as the pigs weren't chasing, we went within ten yards of them and just kept throwing, reloading from a skip. After five minutes of constant barrage at close range, the cops got well pissed off and charged us. I turned and fled....everything went into slow motion, and behind me I saw a flash of blue, hurtling after me with a truncheon. I managed to reach the safety of a crowd, but that was the closest I came to being nicked all day.

HIGH ST RIOT

I decided to cool down a bit and went and had a pint. Then I went down to the High Street. Burtons was being looted, and Dunns was well on fire. I lent a hand at trying to loot Sanders Jewellers, but just as we got the shutters open the cops chased us back to Ferndale Road, where we started on Smuels Jewellers. We got two shutters open, and cleaned them out, after which we started round the front. We tried our best, but the cops kept charging us, and we kept bricking them away. Eventually, I decide to piss off home, and return through a twisting route of quiet back streets. Whole families are sitting on the steps, drinking looted wine and smoking 16 skinners. There's a real nice atmosphere, like a street party. Old black guys are sitting on the pavement next to a Ford transit calmly siphoning out the petrol into a row of bottles and chatting away pleasantly.

I make my way up to the Frontline, past the tory club. It's windows have been bricked, and the cars in the forecourt have been burnt out. Tulse Hill post office is on fire.

Back on the frontline all seems calm as I arrive. Suddenly three riot cops come round the corner of Effra Parade. I lob a couple of bricks at them, and to my horror fifty riot cops wheel round after them. I leg it into the rezzies, just getting away as they charge. A runnigh battle ensues, with mollies being thrown. The cops finally retreat. I listen to the Police radio and hear that a crowd is congregating outside the town hall. I rush down. About four hundred people are there, most of them on the oval in front of the Ritzy. We start pulling up lumps of cut stone from the cobbles. They are so heavy you have to carry them in both hands. About ten vans are running in circles round and round the oval, like injuns. Every ten secs we heave our massive lumps of rock at them. The vans are looking in a real sorry state, covered in dents, with lights and mudguards hanging off. Windscreens are all spidered across. After half an hour of this, they line up by Barclays (all the widows done), and charge us, chasing us all the way up to the George Canning. I make good my escape (as they say) and wander back to the frontline. Buddies is still open for business, of course, so I grab myself a Red Stripe. Listening to the radio, I can hear units complaining:-

"Ere, control, we've been on duty for 14 hours and we still havn't had any refreshments!"

I go out into the streets and luxuriously sip my cold beer in front of two riot vans. The pigs are staring at me with hate and envy....what a laugh! Still I must be home now, got to get some sleep, be ready for tomorrow!!!

POLICE TERRORISTS

TULSE HILL RIOT

As the Brixton Riot spread out in all directions, one zone was up Effra Road to Tulse Hill where we live. About 8.30pm the barricades were going up by St Matthews Church, but as soon as they were half completed the police would charge. This happened 3 times. We were being forced back into the estates. After the 3rd charge our line was up Effra Road near Brixton Water Lane...and right outside the (HO HO HO) Effra Conservative Club (which we've attacked many times before). As an extra bonus the Tory's next door neighbour happened to be the heavily grilled Lambeth Housing Office. The God of Violence smiled on us that night, Long live evil!

Two Tory cars were then dragged out of the car park and set alight in the middle of the road. A third was set alight in their car park (setting a tree in flames and starting rumours that the whole place had gone up with 40 Tories inside!) All the other cars were systematically trashed and the windows bricked as the terrified Tories cowered behind the curtains. The 150-200 spectators didn't seem to mind. Even when the empty beer barrels went through the Housing Office windows. 50 yds up the road people had broken into the garage and relieved it of Crowbars and heavy metal bars. Somebody declared they had run out of fags, someone else said they had tobacco but no papers..The newsagent was then broken into, so everybody had a months supply of fags and papers and sweets etc etc, courtesy of the insurance company!

After that the Post Office was looted of all its small change (£20 bags in 2p and 1p pieces). It was then burnt to the ground. By then the police had moved the barricade so everyone fucked off to the next spot. That was the Tulse Hill Riot and it was great! A.NON

MURDERERS

The community was out on the streets on Saturday night because the Inspector 'Windy Shitpants' Lovelock shot a black mother of six and put her in a wheelchair for life. If it hadn't been her it could have been her 22 year-old son - only he'd be dead. The result of this was a spontaneous explosion of class rage - of community hatred against the cowardly, incompetent, callous action of Inspector 'Cowardly Shitlegs' Lovelock - a so-called fucking 'Firearm Expert' - and his vicious racist friends - the Community Police. All this is conveniently forgotten by his idiot boss the Chief Constable of Lambeth Commander Alec Marnoch who drivels on with mindfucking stupidity about "visiting agitators from Handsworth" - what a load of fucking bullshit! No, as EVERYONE knows the riots were started, organised and led by Communist Alien Storm-troops from the red planet Bolleaux, who landed on the roof of the fucking Ritzy!!! When are the stupid pig shits going to wise up to the fact that we riot in response to the particularly vile acts of oppression by the class enemy: the cops. We fight these bastards with all our force and all our strength with bricks and petrol bombs, we confront them and maim them and kill them BECAUSE WE HATE THEM. The Police are the Class Traitors. They have always been, are now and will always be our Sworn Enemy.

Southwark

DEMOS DELAY EVICTIONS

Over the last few months 560 squats weretaken to court in the latest outbreak of squat bashing fever. Early September the council finally got it together to start actually evicting squats, bluffing that they were aiming at 30 evictions a week. 50 squatters were present to give the bailiffs a warm welcome(eggs, waterhoses, flour etc.) Two meatwagons and three hours later the flat was evicted, seven occupants arrested and released with cautions. Four more flats were scheduled for that day, but the thugs decided to give it a rest. It was not until a week later that bailiffs came into action again, but they are already so far behind schedule, that squats that have been served and bailiffs notice, still don't know if, or when they are being evicted. ( The notices give an eviction date so and so AND THEREAFTER). The SNOW alarm and support network is on full alert, but it is obvious that it's going to take years to do all these evictions, and all the council has succeeded in, is to create yet another waiting list. It is crucial meanwhile, that whenever an eviction may occur that it takes e'm as long as possible and make sure that they will never be able to evict the ratio of flats they have in mind. Well, it's obvious innit? The cops expressed their concern to a local paper: "next time we can expect bottles or bricks"...???!!

*The average lifetime of a squat in Southwark is still at least a year on the average.

Fri 4th Oct...Over 150 people turned up to protest at Southwark Town Hall. The eviction meeting was completely disrupted, yet another victory for SNOW!

The SSAB actions ranged pickets outside S.A. selling stores (Boots, Sainsbury's Testico's etc), leaflets and sticker actions. Many customers and staff reacted positively. Fake leaflets were popular, like the fake 'Get your Free Kruggerand at Barclays' ones, or in Nottingham the 'half price to clear' stickers, plastered in a concerted attack on CoOp branches. They declared that the CoOp was pulling out of the Death trade, and, oddly enough, 3 days later the CoOp announced that it will no longer sell Sth African goods!!

Cities all over the country were posterd and leafletted Barclays Bank seemed to take the brunt of the violent Rotherhithe Squatters.

Rotherhithe Squatters are still alive and well, about 300 of them, in a cosy little community, almost like a village cut off from the rest of London. There are plenty of flats available, and latest predictions are that they'll last for ages (Because Southwark hates the hyper Capitalist new owners the LDDC who the flats have been leased back from until empty). You'll have to do a bit of work of course, most of the empties have been stripped by now, and some blocks have no legal tenants left. But the community is friendly and helpful and you can find everything you need. The trouble with vigilantes is long since forgotten.

Rotherhithe is a part of a huge area of London which will be demolished and levelled, eventually, to become a moneyspinner for Thatcher's rich friends. But for the moment the Rotherhithe Squatters live and prosper in the backwater.

If you fancy the village atmosphere in central London by the Thames call in to No.20 Silverwalk. SE 16. If no one is home just wander down to the pub, The Ship, (nearest to Silverwalk) and have an old chat with the squatters.

attacks, with lots of broken windows, spray ups, blood, destroyed cash dispensers etc. In London at least 20 branches were damaged, the Midland also took a lot of stick. In Hastings several Barclays banks got their windows smashed twice, this double effort was repeated in Brixton and in Brighton, where the American Express offices were firebombed in a SSAB action. Great Stuff! All this costs them a fortune, in damage and lost business. But we have millions more to cost them before their Sth African profits are gone!

SSAB was a great idea (fuck the trendies who didn't take part because it was 'Anarchist inspired'. 0 But we can't defeat Apartheid in a day. The tactic of hitting in our own area's WORKS.. We have NO REPORTS OF ARRESTS, just one woman was held for a time in Nottingham for spraying S.A. goods with Fart Spray. We don't get media coverage but that's not essential.

So let's get out every week and attack Sth African businesses and collaborators!

In an unpleasant surprise for five South London Bailiffs, the courts revoked their certificates.

The firm 'Pete Wallis Today' (Longley Rd Tooting) now faces closure. These scum had been going round looting the flats of tenants with rent arrears, and then grossly overcharging for their services... I.E. ## TED RAKES IT IN!

Things ARE going nicely for TED of late.

All those extra contracts for ARDMORE construction, courtesy of Lambeth Council, resulted in no less than 100 extra jobs at the notorious building firm. This represents at least 500,000 more on labour and probably a nice tidy 5% of that (5,000) found its way to TED's voluminous pockets.

AND what about all the insurance money due after the riot to damaged properties- TED owns at least 9 shops/flats in Acre La, one of the hot spots of that weekend, local traders are well confident of payouts from the city seeing as how their council leader has such a stake in the matter!

ITS ALL IN YOUR SOARAWAY
CROWBAR

POLICE used dogs to break up an open-air meeting of the Cultural Awareness Programme on Sunday afternoon. The weekly meeting had been moved from Coldharbour Lane to Dexter Square in Railton Road, where organiser Spartacus R. and Lambeth councillors Irma Critchlow and Amelda Inyang were among the speakers.

FRANKFURT ANTI NAZIS

Ted Knight stood with his gaggle of Community Leaders in their 'I love Lambeth' T-shirts watching in amazement as the Mollies rained thick and fast at the police station-for once he was struck dumb by the sheer anger of the crowds and it was some hours before he found the words to express the events of Saturday in his usual manner.

Yes! Again we heard the old bullshit about deprivation under ratcrapping, on and on he went, never once supporting the intent of the mob to burn down the police station. Funny that he found time to embrace the armies and people's militias in Nicaragua, yet when it comes closer to home, nearer to another election, drifting into another election-poll, out come the 'understandable but inexcusable' comments and away he melts behind the police lines. Still, the nice new pink paving stones on Brixton Rd proved wonderful ammunition, so much easier to lift than the old ones! In this respect alone, Lambeth leads the way out of inner city slump!

"TOTTENHAM-REVENGE IS SWEET" graffiti has been painted over by the cops as quick as it goes up!
CROWBAR SAYS:- WHAT A WIND UP!

At the same day as the Brixton uprising, a meeting of German neo-Nazi party NPD was to take place in Frankfurt. A large crowd had gathered to try and stop the meeting, and soon streetfighting broke out between the hundreds of Filth (protecting the Nazi's) and the anti fascists. Water cannons were driving straight into crowds to try and disperse them: one demonstrator who was knocked over by the force of the water got run over by the large vehicle. It wasn't until half an hour later the cops decided to radio for and ambulance. The victim, Gunther Sare was dead on arrival in the hospital. The next day, after the news had spread, 1000's more gathered to demonstrate. The demo was immediately attacked by the filth and a ferocious riot broke out: posh shops looted, cars turned over + burnt, streetbarrikades. The "unrest" spread to 19! other German cities, including Berlin. The demo's continued the following Monday and Tuesday, featuring cycle-mobs (improved mobility).

Hundreds were arrested or (badly) injured, and Frankfurt is now in a state of martial law; all demonstrations are prohibited.

FORENSIC HINTS

THIS is going to be an article, that explains the basic precautions that you should take if you intend to burn anything down. The filth have a wealth of scientific know how at their disposal, and if they consider it important enough, they will use it. But remember, they can only use it if they have a victim to hang the crime on, so obviously your first priority is not to get caught, or even come under suspicion. If, for example, you are the only militant in a small town, and already well known to the local fuzz, its best to do your dirty deeds elsewhere.

Next, and very importantly, is the people you do it with. Only go with good friends, who can be guaranteed to keep their mouths shut. NEVER get involved with someone you neither know or trust. All you are doing is lighting one small match, but if caught, you could go down for eight years..... think about it. Your planning has to be very meticulous, but never write anything down. NEVER use telephones. Make sure everyone in the group knows exactly what is going on, and what they have to do, especially if something goes wrong. Firstly, pick your target. Make sure no-one lives there, unless you want to face a charge of attempted (or actual) murder. Make sure that any fire will not be able to spread to neighbouring buildings, and that combustible chemicals are store there, that could explode or give noxious fumes, thus endangering the immediate area.

Pick your method of entry, and make sure that it is out of sight. DON'T take stupid risks. If you use tools to break in, remember that items such as bolt-cutters, crowbars, screwdrivers etc, leave identifying traces, just like the marks on a bullet. Throw them away immediately afterwards. If any glass is smashed, tiny fragments will DEFINITELY lodge in your clothing. If paint or any chemical, such as petrol is used, traces of them will DEFINITELY end up on your clothes. For this reason destroy every thing that you have been wearing immediately afterwards. Traces of chemicals will also adhere to your skin, and especially under your nails, so have a very good shower, and get the nailbrush out.

Some Miscellaneous Notes*****

Don't smoke. As well as being able to identify the brand, the cops can also identify your blood type from the spit on the butt. They can also take identifiable prints off the butt.

Wear a hat. As well as hiding part of your face, it should prevent hair falling about. A hair sample in a lab can only prove that you were NOT involved. Make sure your house is clean. If you are raided, you don't want to be nicked for your grass plants. Responsibility notes....are a bit of an ego trip, and just gives the filth more forensics to work on. Finally, forensics only serve to positively identify you, if you are caught. Don't let that happen. If the job comes off, you will want to boast about your success, and it could soon get out of hand. Don't take the risk...keep shtumm and stay that way.

This article is only a summary, and no substitute for common sense. For more detailed information, try and get hold of a copy of "Without a Trace", which is now unfortunately out of print.

Well...we were wondering have you got ant tips on how to open it?, We'll only have one chance to open it, and we want to get it righth first time. A comrade recommended CROWBAR, what do you think?

Also please plug Stop Business as Usual on Nov, 5th, yours in hope, comrades from B-----.

from looking at the photo, it seems a job. The padlocks are case-hardened steel with no rivets, and I fear that even the largest pair of boltcutters will have little effect on it. So I suggest you equip yourself with a pair of large hacksaws, and invest in plenty of HARDENED blades. You will have to cut through the hasps, close to the hinges. These are made of mild steel, and present least resistance. Two people cut simultaneously, with lookouts. It should take no more than about 20 minutes, but bring some black boot polish with you, and if you don't get all the way through, fill the cuts with it, and they shouldn't be noticeable....come back and finish the job another time. Good luck, happy hunting, and send us a report, all the best,

GREEK HUNGER STRIKE

Victor Armanious is a Greek anarchist who has been held in Prison since 4/6/85. He has begun a hunger strike on the 20/8/85 protesting about the way in which he was arrested. Victor was arrested close to a bank that had just been firebombed. There was no evidence against him other than the fact that he had been in the area, and that he had been demonstrating against the french fascist Le Pen, when he had visited Greece on the 5/12/84. 130 people had been nicked at that demo, including Victor. The evidence from the cops who had nicked him for the bank job was in conflict with each other. All the same he has been sent to jail, where he's been held ever since.

Victor is now on the 48th day of his hunger strike and is not going to give up his efforts to be released even if it costs him his life. The effect of his hunger strike is already obvious, as his eyesight is going, and he can't walk properly anymore. His comrades in Greece are supporting him in every possible way by informing the people about the truth of his case, which is far different than what the mass media present. Their last attempt at seeing the Greek minister of justice was successful in getting the assurance that Victor will be able to present his own case, and therefore, to do it best. By the time the Justice (ha!) Minister gets moving, Victor could well be dead. No Government assurance, until we see our comrade released. Victor's only actual crime is being an anarchist. How long will it be before our existence as anarchists becomes a crime? The creation of victims like Victor Armanious is a very well known method that the system uses to destroy us.

But they will never succeed.

ON 11th OCT THE GREEK EMBASSY IN LONDON WAS PICKETED FOR V. ARMANIOUS.

question of self-defense. However later that night as they learned that 14 @s (anarchists) had been arrested, they included ed as one of their demands that all @ prisoners be released. Further, they announced that if any cops tried to force entry, they would blow up the building. Meanwhile the street fighting outside continued and lasted through the night.

The next day, as police forces saturated the area, and no-one is permitted in or out of Exarchia, the students who had occupied the Law School decide to leave. It is meanwhile reported in the press that @s alone must be held responsible for this situation no matter what the cost in human lives!

As the seige goes into it's third day, the @s lay their demands out to the government once again-set all @ prisoners free and withdraw the police from Exarchia Square. At 11.30p.m. 500 comrades attempt an unsuccessful march to the occupied school. Police open fire but fortunately no-one is injured.

By the fourth day, in response to mounting media pressure, the cops rel-

The occupation of the Chemistry Building in the university of Athens last May by a large force of anarchists and students was the retaliation to a horrific build up of police provocation in the light of the forthcoming Greek elections. Certain public figures, both in the Greek political sphere and in the media, openly declared their hatred for anarchists as early as September of last year in what was to be a pre-election campaign of extreme police provocation to justify the introduction of new law and order measures.

The Minister of Public Order (Police) Yannis Skoularikis, ('Socialist') on 10-84 ordered the police to start 'Operation Virtue' in Exarchia, an area of Athens where anarchists meet, and where the Uni. of Athens is located. On this day the police arrested many people and badly beat passers-by. But this was just the beginning. Anarchists and students faced weekly and sometimes daily bloody persecution for their political beliefs. Some were arrested, some released and some jailed, but their comrades retaliated with such actions as attacks on the offices of fascist publications and fascist political parties.

Finally on the 9th May, 1985, as 300 comrades gather at Exarchia in protest to mounting police violence, 2000 armed cops surrounded the square and ordered everyone to leave. As they are forced to obey, police start laying into them. One hundred escaped and managed to get in to the School of Chemistry where they defended themselves with stones and molotovs. At this early stage of the seige their entry into the school was a ease all but 17 of the @ prisoners. Still they refuse to let food, medicine or ambulances in. In nationwide support however, the @s hear that university schools in 4 other Greek cities are also occupied.

11p.m. Sunday sees heightened action when rumours of a comrade being murdered spread-2000 people march against the cops to break the seige. The cops counter-attacked and so the @s decided to leave taking most of the occupants save 15 who remain firm to blowing up the building if the cops try to enter the school and force them out.

Monday 3000 people march to the school. The police withdraw and the occupants and ex-prisoners come out of the school with iron bars. The following day, 8000 march against recent events and the imminent elections but this time the police were under orders to restrain themselves so no arrests. Since the seige @s have virtually been left alone, firstly because the cops have seen how far @s will go, and secondly because the government doesn't want their sacred socialist image bloodied around election time.

LATE LATE NEWS... 3 prisoners have died in the prison hospital. The first, accused of trying to murder Papandreou's psychiatrist, killed himself, the second had a heart attack and the third in mysterious circumstances.

BRIBE FEAR OF SHOTGUN BOBBIES

The press were muddled about the initial visit by Herts. Constables. to M.Groce 'hideaway' in Waterloo. last Friday.

The only clear details were that 4 'unarmed' officers went to the flat and heard a 'shot' from inside the door and that M.Groce 'escaped' leaving the gallant Herts. cops no choice but to hand over their inquiries to the MET.

It has been established that the MET had not been informed of the presence of officers from an external force on what is, after all, their 'patch'.

Only after a 'shot' was heard, did the MET start casting around for an arrest (Herts. had only wanted an interview) and ended their search on Saturday morning with 'trig-g-g-er' LOVELOCK's paralysing of Mrs. Groce.

CROWBAR can reveal, however, that the unofficial visit to the flat in W'loo by Herts. Cons. had been ordered for covert reasons..To keep an element of surprise-? you ask..To save on phone bills -?...Perhaps.....BUT the main idea was to keep things out of the greedy paws of THE MET!!

Yes, for many years now, the Met have had an unusual method of questioning people 'on behalf' of other forces.. The form goes something like this

There's a warrant out on you in (Name of distant town)-Give us £200 and we'll let the matter rest!!

The grateful fugitive usually coughs up, thankful to avoid a trial, in a provincial 'Hanging Judge' court. Where does this fit in with the Brixton shooting, you ask yourself? Well the Herts. piigs would have been embarrassed at having their fishing expedition thrust so suddenly into the hands of the financially obstructive MET..but realised their slip in not arresting the red herring of a 3 years out-of-date address for the attention of the heavy brigade who so love high calibre captures!!!

Of course, letting a simple questioning job deteriorate to the point of attempted murder of the wrong victim in no way reflects any shortcomings on the part of police bureaucracy and the whole affair will now just melt away under the cloud of the internal inquiry by the mates of 'trigger' Lovelock.

Lambeth council are now trying to evict a squat in Kings Ave. with a used eviction order.

The house had been repossessed by the council before the new lot of squatters moved in, but they were served a bailiff's notice without being taken to court first. The squatters are fighting the case in court, and will undoubtedly win. Apart from that it is a good delaying tactic, when served a UFO-Bailiff's notice. This is the first ever initiative to try and economise on squat bashing in the history of Lambeth Council as we know it... the average squat in Brailsford Rd. gets taken to court almost three times a year. What's the matter, Ted?

Two sound squats on Acre Lane 35/37, living- and rehearsal space for at least 25 people, were recently evicted and gutted to make room for PARKING SPACE for another newer and bigger DeTestco's planned at the back of the site. Lambeth Council, one of the bigger local apartheid-investors (60% of its assets invested in South African companies) has just issued a very fancy looking official statement that they are to avoid any dealings with S.A.-connected firms. ### ALL LONDON SQUATTER'S MEETING

Held at a block of flats in Chelsea with reps. from ASS, Brixton Squatters Aid, SNOW, Camden Squatters Rotherhithe Squatters and Harringey Homes For All. Reports:

Harringey-The Old Arts Centre has been squatted. Comprising 2 Big Halls-They would like to have from bands who want to play there. Meets Fri 7-10pm.

Brixton-Group still meeting Suns 4pm. We found that it's easier for squats to sign for a budget A&C at an L.E.B. showroom outside the area you're in! Otherwise it's £100 deposit..

Rotherhithe-Several blocks of flats squatted: LOTS MORE AVAILABLE!!

Chelsea-Cheylesmore House is getting taken to court, 20-30 flats/houses available in Queenbourne Park Estate.

Camden- Group still meeting Tues eves. at ; Carols Cafe, 5, Carol St NW1.

The next All London Squatters Meeting will be on 3rd November at SNOW at 6pm.

NOTICE TO WOMEN..... THE FOLLOWING ISSUE OF CROWBAR IS PLANNED AS A WOMEN'S ISSUE AND WILL BE PRODUCED BY WOMEN. LEASE SEND IN ALL CONTRIBUTIONS BY THE START OF NOVEMBER.

SOUTH FRONT

Bailiffs and council were due to evict 4 places in Tulse Hill, one of which was the new site for the CRECHE-As soon as the council got wind of this we were taken to court. The place lasted only 6 weeks-fuck, meanwhile half the block is empty, because no-one wants to live in this Hard-to-Let (EZYTERBURGLE) DUMP.

The family were evicted for the 4th time; this year to make way for 3 hyper trendy scabs (Quote. "How do you expect to get a place if you are too fucked to pay £9 per week+ keep squatting all over the place")

WE replied that they must be morons to be used by the council in this way.. You have to sign the agreement without seeing the flat! Then you move in without any repairs being done.

Anyway, a councillor's car got covered in paint and he got one of his slaves to clean it up for him... The councillors remained incognito while arguments raged between us, the garbage collectors and the tenants.

Several people have asked about the fate of the crèche.. Here are the answers. TED KNIGHT's version 'I've offered these people three alternative places, but they refused to come and talk !

When confronted by questioners at a Labour Party meeting, Sharon Atkins said; "For once and for all, let's get this straight-this crèche was just for a bunch of spoilt kids run by middle class people who refuse to talk to the council!"

There's only one answer to this-a good hard kick below the bureaucratic belt!!!

One of the flats was not evicted-They'd kicked in the door alright but were not sure what to do with the occupant who refused to walk out, which might have been due to his smile, posture or the fact that the new door for the flat had mysteriously disappeared!

At the same time as these despicable evictions, a refuge for Asian women was getting the same treatment.... WHERE WILL IT END TED???

Squatters are now occupying an old FIRE-station, next to Greenwich library and the M102 flyover. (bus 177) They have great big plans for a restaurant, gigs, etc. They are asking for more volunteers. Next issue: The squatted cop shop?

Dear Crowbar,

Congratulations to all on the superb example set by your fashion editor. I spotted him during the Brixton Loot-In, wearing a stunning two piece Black Combat suit, with matching earrings. His neatly coiffured hair stood out stunningly amidst the flames. Just divine, don't you think? For truth, he was the best dressed rioter on the block!

Dear Crowbar,

Enclosed is a few of our anti-hunt (new) leaflets. They're pretty grotty but should be quite effective in making people feel really bad. Clydeside @'s are at the moment printing a new paper called the Clydesider. OK, so its a shitty name and sounds like a folk group, but it is a good looking paper, and will be flogged at 10p a copy. The Price Waterhouse fines are slowly coming down, and now theres just over a £1,000 left to pay. Three of us are up in court this week for Breach of the Peace, and Breach of Bail. It was an incident on at the hunt when some rich bastard punched one of the lads- we got done and he got charged with assault. £700 in damages is being claimed.

Thats all for now,

Yours for liberation,

Vegan Action Group,

Clydeside @'s etc.....

Dear Crowbar,

Islington Council, probably saving services, want to close Unwaged Fightback on Oct 18.

We shall not give in to their threats or intimidation. We shall stay and continue to operate at our usual adress until the new centre is open in a form in which unwaged people have control over it, which ever action LBI might take to throw us out.

Although this centre is run by the unwaged, it is run by a rather small regular team. But if sucessful, this attack on our centre will be a blow to people trying to take their lives in their own hands and refusing to be used as tools in the power struggle between the Labour Coucil and the Tories.

THEREFORE WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT!!

You can write to the London Borough of Islington expressing your disgust and anger at the council, and your support for the Unwaged Fightback.

Join our demo at ISLINGTON TOWN HALL on Oct. 15th 6:30 p.m.

Come to the UNWAGED FIGHTBACK on Friday Oct. 18th and the days after, and actively oppose the closing down of our centre.

Come to our BENEFIT GIG on Oct. 26th 8p.m. at the Old Art Centre Redvers Road, Wood Green tube (then Follow) the posters).

We count on your support.

Islington action group of the unwaged.

Dear Crowbar,

I have only signed on 3 times so far this year, (is this a record?). Isn't Brixton DHSS wonderful? But now the bastards have put me back on two weekly signing! Ruins the olive season in Greece, like seriously man, this is a serious aggravation. And when you think that Coldharbour Lane was a Filth Free Area for at least an hour on Saturday night- why the hell did no one burn down the office? Last time some brave hero burnt it down, we didn't have to sign on for four months, and the cheques kept coming. The trick is to leave the 'New Claims Section' well alone, or how about the new Overspill offices in Stockwell? They seem to think they can solve unemployment by building dole offices. Maybe we could demand a YTS scheme for petrol bomb co-operatives. What I suggest is that there should be a hit list for the next riot- the Pigsty at the top, of course, but I would have the dole office high on the list, followed by Teds Mafia HQ- The Town Hall. Also I feel that it was an absolute disgrace that Barclays was not razed to the ground. And that no serious attacks were made on the prison. If only someone had enough sense to produce a crate of mollies during the first stoning of the Police station, I mean to say, these 'political agitators' are hopeless. Still, all in all, it was a good old riot (thanks for the whisky, Vera). Oh, well, I suppose I'll have to start another one to get rid of that Dole Office- Cheers and Godd Looting, Dee Rongo (convoy, retired)

WHAT DO YOU

AN ALL?WHAT DOES THE POLICEMAN GET
IF HE SHOTS
YOU?

25 GOES

THOUGH
BOOKS DISAGREE

Ki Ora (Wha? eds.)

hope the NZ$5 with this letter made it to you alright. Please send me anything you can. We have a small population in New Zealand (3 million) so the @ scene is small, but I hope to be bringing something out. NZ is still nuke free and recently 25,000 people marched in Wellington to oppose the South African Rugby tour, which has now been stopped. Rugby, racialism and beer is most peoples existance over here;-fucking pathetic. There is still a glimmer of hope though!

By for now,

Simon.

REVIEWS

Here's some reviews of mags that didn't get in last issue. Even since then we've seen about five brand new mags! Maybe things aren't that bad after all! We shouldn't be so downhearted! The main problem with anarchists, is that they have such lousy communications. Who knows? Maybe 90% of the population are anarchists, and we never realised!! So come on, let's have an anarchist mag in every town, village and city in Britain, and the world. Even a one-page broadsheet is enough. If you can get a safe, respectable address for yourselves, how about ringing up a photocopy company, and getting a machine on a trial basis? By the time they repossess it, you can have run out a few thousand posters and mags!!!!!!

So come on, let's be having you, our demand is:-
AN ANARCHIST MAG IN EVERY STREET!!!!!!

Clydesider. Glasgow G1 1HL.

First issue, comes from a long line of Glasgow @ mags, like Practical Anarchy and the Clydeside Anarchist....the buggers keep changing names! Articles on Apartheid, Glenochil Prison, Polis, and good local news. Only 10p.

Counter Information. Box 81 c/o 43 Candlemaker Row, Edinburgh.

Issue No.7, with articles on Handsworth, Dole struggles, Apartheid, local and international industrial news. It was very good during the miners strike. FREE! (Go on, send 'em a SAE!)

Red And Black. c/o Garth TCE, York YO3 6DU.

Issue No. 2. Calls itself the "Anarchist-Socialist paper of the North East". This issue is taken up with industrial news, concerning the miners, the NUT, and the Health Workers. Lots on Apartheid. 30p. (Bit expensive.)

Boot 'Em. Box A1, c/o 4, Onslow Road, Southampton.

Takes over from the now sadly deceased Verbal Assault. The first issue, with lots of hardhitting local news on squatting and corruption. Its Free! (But send them a donation if you're in a good mood!)

Ainrial. c/o Just Books 7 Winetavern Road, Smithfield, Belfast 1.

Now in its second issue, Well produced with news on local Belfast issues....Asbestos, supergrasses, Plastic Bullets, the Murrays, Irish steel. 20p outside the six counties (send some p+p, or SAE)...

Between The Lines. Box A 34 Cowley Road, Oxford.

Local mag, now in its 15th issue. Articles on animals, squatting, cruise, smack, and some nice tips on what to do if you get nicked. Also a nice line in anti-cop jokes (think we'll rip them off in this issue). 20p.

Processed World. ,55 Sutter St, 829, San Francisco, CA 94104 USA.

Very flash mag from the US. All to do with computing, and working with them. How to sabotage and undermine them. Lots of graphics, poems, letters. They've written us a shitty letter, complaining that we haven't credited them for the pics we ripped off. Anyway, a good subversive read all the same. $5-$10 for four issues. Available in Britain from 121 or Freedom bookshops.

GOOD-BYE VERBAL ASSAULT !!

Southampton's fine @ paper is closing down in its 17th issue with scribbles on Stonehenge Riot, (good + comprehensive), Bullying and local news coverage 20p from Box A, 4, Onslow Rd, Southampton.

MONEY FOR GUNS

Alright then, let's be 'avin you. We're still doing subscriptions. All it will cost you is a measly £2:50 for a year's supply of bumper fun. Just send it to Crowbar, BM Box Hurricane, London, WC 1.

!!About the MINERS...

(Its called 'Tell Us Lies About The Miners Strike')

A new booklet has just come out, written by Dave Douglas (wotcha mate!), delegate for the Hatfield Main Colliery, in association with the D.A.M.

It gives a detailed account of how the media tried to divide the miners and their supporters with their twisted versions of the 84/85 strike... (Good to see so many hacks get their comeuppance during the recent riots.)

From libel, slander, conspiracy and just plain deceit, the book outlines the methods of the press. Contains also a good 'Whos Who' of all the anti NUM forces behind the scab 'Working Miners Movement'. One of the best books to come out of the strike!

Available from Freedom, 121 Bookshop, Housmans, or Grapevine, 25 Gwydir St, Cambridge. Send 60p (cheap) and a large S.A.E. Third of profits to Victimized Miners.....Do it today!

IMPORTANT..IMPORTANT..IMPORTANT..
CROWBAR IS FREE TO ALL PRISONERS
JUST SEND US THEIR NAMES AND ADDRESSES, WE'LL DO THE REST!

NF BASTARDS

NF stickers and stickers have been put up around the outskirts of Brixton area. Apparently the Lambeth NF gang is the biggest in the country (which isn't saying much!) If anyone has any addresses or clues as to the whereabouts of this scum, please forward them to our address.

AND FINALLY...Sorry we've been so late in coming out, but every time we start to get in gear, another riot starts up and we all have to go out and play....
...heartbreaking, innit?

Welcome to Brixton
