Letter from the Editor

Brothers and Sisters,

This has already been a success in many ways, 11 states have already sent in confirmation of action across the country. In addition to this international support has been phenomenal with already three overseas actions having taken place in solidarity in Canada, Greece and Palestine. The national narrative towards prisoners' rights has drastically changed in support of prisoners taking the lead in criminal justice reform. Texas has already responded by slashing their telephone costs by more than 35% Prisoners' leadership along with public pressure are creating results in different regions around the county Unity matters, if there is some action happening in your community you have been given the privilege to make the choice to unify. George Jackson's most powerful (and threatening) message was the willingness to work together across racial, political and social barriers knowing that we are unified in this collective action. Knowing that international groups have taken on the call and stood strong on our platform gives us in the states no excuse to unify under umbrella of the 10 demands listed that were specifically crafted for us. To date over 350 organizations worldwide have signed on in support, the world is watching and waiting for your lead.

In solidarity, Amani Sawari (@SawariMi) sawarimi.org

Jailhouse Lawyers Speak

These are the NATIONAL DEMANDS of the men and women in federal, immigration and state prisons:

- Immediate improvements to the conditions of prisons and prison policies that recognize the humanity of imprisoned men and women.
- 2. An immediate end to prison slavery. All persons imprisoned in any place of detention under United States jurisdiction must be paid the prevailing wage in their state or territory for their labor.
- 3. Rescission of the Prison Litigation Reform Act, allowing imprisoned humans a proper channel to address grievances and violations of their rights.
- 4. Rescission of the Truth in Sentencing Act and the Sentencing Reform Act so that imprisoned humans have a possibility of rehabilitation and parole. No human shall be sentenced to death by incarceration or serve any sentence without the possibility of parole.
- 5. An immediate end to the racial overcharging, over-sentencing and parole denials of Black and brown humans. Black humans shall no longer be denied parole because the victim of the crime was white, which is a particular problem in Southern states.
- 6. An immediate end to racist gang enhancement laws targeting Black and Brown humans.
- 7. No denial of access to rehabilitation programs for imprisoned humans at their place of detention because of their label as a violent offender.
- 8. State prisons must be funded specifically to offer more rehabilitation services.
- 9. Reinstatement of Pell grant eligibility to prisoners in all US states and territories.
- 10. Recognition of voting rights for all confined citizens serving prison sentences, pretrial detainees and so-called "ex-felons." Their votes must be counted. Representation is demanded. All voices count!

We all agree to spread this strike throughout the prisons of Amerikkka! From Aug. 21 to Sept. 9, 2018, men and women in prisons across the nation will strike in the following manner:

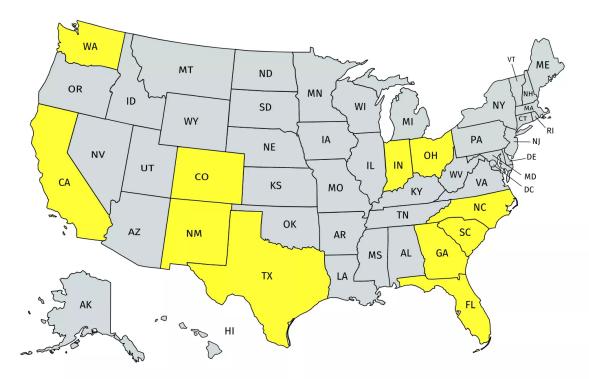

- 1. Work Strikes: Prisoners will not report to assigned jobs. Each place of detention will determine how long its strike will last. Some of these strikes may translate into a local list of demands designed to improve conditions and reduce harm within the prison.
- 2. Sit-ins: In certain prisons, men and women will engage in peaceful sit-in protests.
- 3. Boycotts: All spending should be halted. We ask those outside the walls not to make financial judgments for those inside. Men and women on the inside will inform you if they are participating in this boycott. We support the call of the Free Alabama Movement Campaign to "Redistribute the Pain" 2018, as Bennu Hannibal Ra-Sun, formerly known as Melvin Ray, has laid out with the exception of refusing visitation. See these principles described here: https://redistributethepain.wordpress.com/.
- 4. Hunger Strikes: Men and women shall refuse to eat.

How you can help:

- Make the nation take a look at our demands. Demand action on our demands by contacting your local, state and federal political representatives with these demands. Ask them where they stand.
- Spread the strike and word of the strike in every place of detention.
- Contact a supporting local organization to see how you can be supportive. If you are unsure of who to connect with, email millionsforprisonersmarch@gmail.com.
- Be prepared by making contact with people in prison, family members of prisoners and prisoner support organizations in your state to assist in notifying the public and media on strike conditions.
- Assist in our announced initiatives to have the votes of people in jail and prison counted in elections.

Reports Back from the First Week

by Amani Sawari August 28, 2018 | sawarimi.org

Many people are aware of the prison strike that began August 21 on the 47th anniversary of George Jackson's assassination in 1971. Some of those following the strike are confused by the conflicting messages that are being sent out by states' departments of corrections. It's clear that prison officials are doing all that they can to suppress strike actions and prisoners' organizing. However prisoners are rising up in institutions across the country, and now internationally, in protest of the living and working conditions in the prisons. They also call out for the rescinding of legal barriers and policies that keep inmates in a state of oppression and instability. They are demanding to have ownership over transforming the circumstances that contribute to the violent environments they forced to live in. While at least 17 states have pledged to participate in the strike prior to its beginning, it is expected that more are also involved. Below I've included an explanation behind prisoners actions and a list of the confirmed strike activity that have already been recorded, more are expected to be confirmed in the coming days.

Prison Strikes are Not Riots

It's important to realize that prisoners striking is not the equivalent to a riot. A riot is "a violent disturbance of the peace". I'd like to point out two aspects of a riot that are not applicable to prison strikes. First, none of the actions that prisoners are taking against the prison industrial complex through their striking: whether that be through work stoppages, sit-ins, boycotts or hunger strikes; are violent actions. Jailhouse lawyers specifically chose actions that were peaceful and rely on the prisoner to make an individual decision on their participation in the strike. The second point that I'd like to mention arguing that prison strikes are not riots is that there is nothing peaceful about a prison. There is no way to disturb something that is non-existent. So due to the fact that a riot is a violent disturbance of the peace, criminal justice false accusations of prisoners' being threatening due to their inciting riot activity is completely false and inapplicable to our incarcerated organizing leaders.

Prisons are inherently violent in nature, therefore prisoners are serving their communities within the prison as well as their regions and their nation by making the choice to point out the nature of prisons as being oppressive centers of abuse and violence. These brave prisoners are serving every single person who suffers from the mass industrial complex as an inmate or the loved one of an inmate. They are serving the future generations of people who will not have to live within these violent and abusive conditions because of their taking the risk to stand up against them today with concrete demands. It is our responsibility to support them.

Confirmed Actions Thus Far

This first week of the strike has just come to an end and we have seen a substantial wave of success. The mainstream media attention on the strike has been monumentally greater than we have ever seen in the past. Along with this, the public narrative towards prisoners has changed dramatically from their being viewed as 'violent animals that need to be put in their place' to 'individuals seeking enriching living conditions who are in need of support for their environments to become truly rehabilitative'. The public eye is focused on securing and protecting prisoners rights. We are also committed to highlighting the in justices that are inherit to our criminal justice system. Below I've included updates with details from today's press release:

Washington – Representatives of over 200 immigrant detainees at Northwest Detention Center in Tacoma, Washington declared a hunger strike on day one of the national prison strike. Amid fears of retaliation, 70 across three blocks participated. As of this time, seven continue to refuse food into a second week. Georgia – Prisoners in Georgia State Prison "Reidsville" have reported a strike according to Jailhouse Lawyers Speak.

South Carolina – Jailhouse Lawyers Speak is reporting that prisoners in the following facilities are on strike: Broad River Correctional Institution, Lee Correctional Institution, McCormick Correctional Institution, Turbeville Correctional Institute, Kershaw Correctional Institution, and Lieber Correctional Institution. The actions in these facilities include widespread workstrikes, with only a few prisoners reporting to their jobs, and commissary boycotts. McCormick prisoners have been subjected to strip searches everyday since August 21.

North Carolina – Prisoners at Hyde Correctional Institution in Swanquarter, NC demonstrated in solidarity with the strike. There have been unconfirmed reports of strikes at other institutions across the state.

California – at New Folsom Prison a hunger strike started by Heriberto Garcia on August 21 has grown to Lancaster State Prison outside LA: William E. Brown, Jr. and his group are also striking.

Ohio – At least two prisoners at Toledo Correctional Institution began a hunger strike on August 21. David Easley and James Ward were moved into isolation for participating and authorities have cut off their means of communication to outside contacts.

Colorado – starting around August 7, ten prisoners at Sterling Correctional Facility announced a hunger strike against a two week long 24 hour a day lockdown of 38 administrative segregation prisoners.

Indiana – prisoners in the segregation unit at Wabash Valley Correctional Institution initiated a hunger strike on Monday August 27 demanding adequate food and an end to cold temperatures in the unit.

New Mexico – On August 9, prisoners at Lea County Correctional Facility in Hobbs, NM organized a work stoppage against conditions at the prison, operated by private corporation GEO Group. Tensions at the prison reached a tipping point prior to the date of the strike and prisoners could not wait before initiating their protest. All facilities in New Mexico were placed on lockdown status on the morning of August 20. This statewide lockdown has since been lifted except for Lea County C.F..

Florida – Jailhouse Lawyers Speak asserts that five Florida facilities are seeing strike activity: Charlotte CI reports 40 refusing work, and 100 boycotting commissary. Prisoners at Dade Correctional say 30-40 on strike, Franklin Correctional report 30-60, Holmes Correctional reports 70, Appalachee Correctional report an unknown number.

Nova Scotia, Canada – at Burnside County Jail in Halifax prisoners went on strike and issued a protest statement in solidarity with the strike and naming local demands. They went through a lockdown and extensive negotiations with authorities, those who refused to cooperate with humiliating body scans were punished by being locked in a dry cell (no water or working toilets) for three days.

Texas - IWOC was forwarded a message dated 8/23 from inside administrative segregation, (solitary) of Stiles Unit, Beaumont TX confirming that 2 prisoners are on hunger strike in solidarity with the national action: "I feel great. But very hungry! And not because I don't have food but because of our 48 hours solidarity with our brothers and sisters. It's the only way we can show support from inside of Seg. Let everyone know we got their backs." - IWOC has confirmed that Robert Uvalle is on hunger strike in solitary at Michael Unit, Anderson County, TX in solidarity with the nationwide strike. Robert has been in solitary for most of his 25 years inside.

Prison authorities have begun responding to the strike in media interviews denying that anything unusual is occurring in their facilities. Inside organizers predicted this would happen and urge continued skepticism and investigation. Organizers with Jailhouse Lawyer's Speak struggle to rebut these claims because of the need to protect themselves from targeted reprisals.

Before the strike started, prisoner leaders in Ohio, Florida and Texas were targeted and isolated. The state's attempts to pre-empt or deter strike action in some facilities included humiliating and demoralizing rituals.

In previous years, prisoners who openly spoke to media suffered greatly for it. For example, Melvin Ray, Dhati Khalid and Kinetik Justice of the Free Alabama Movement were transferred to isolation in 2014 after publicly announcing a work stoppage. Then in 2016, while still in isolation from that incident, they continued to openly advocate the September 9 national strike. Kinetik Justice was sent to notoriously dangerous Kilby and Limestone prisons where he believed authorities intended to kill him, but continued to protest and draw attention, protecting himself from further harm.

The efforts by authorities to disrupt communication between prisoner organizers and outside support also interfere with and impede communication between prisons by inside organizers. Before the strike started Jailhouse Lawyers Speak heard commitments to the strike and its demands from prisoners in 17 states. Prison authorities may prove successful in concealing or even deterring participation in some of those states, but they cannot refute the righteousness of the 10 prisoner demands.

Follow Strike Organizers

Due to the fact that prison officials are blatantly lying about strike activity we are responsible for tracking our own success. While doing this it is critical that we continue to press prison staff and corrections officials about what's going on in corrections institutions. We have the right to know what prison what the conditions are that prisoners are facing on the inside. For every prisoner or group of prisoners that are facing retaliation we must support them by being aggressive in our response to the retaliation be sure to follow the following outside organizers to stay abreast of what's going on in ways that you can support from the outside: @JailLawSpeak, @SlaveryPrison, @SawariMi, @jaybeware and @IWW IWOC

While the facility staff have been denying strike evidence thus far those organizers listed above are recording and documenting reports of strike activity. If you are a friend, family member or otherwise supporter of someone on the inside with information about strike activity associated with the National Prison Strike you can report it using the following methods:

Email – prisonstrikemedia@gmail.com with the subject [Prison Strike Watch, "Name of Institution" in "Location"]

Twitter – follow and post details also tagging the accounts listed above while using the hashtag #PrisonStrike

Facebook – follow and inbox Jailhouse Lawyers Speak @BlkJailhouselawyer

All submitted reports will receive a follow-up for confirmation prior to being recorded as official strike actions. The work is not nearly done yet. It's just beginning as the light has been shinned into the dark spaces in our prisons, jails and detention centers illuminating the messes that exist there; now it is time for us to continue this work by being proactive in cleaning up the messes that we find with the use of our own individual expertise, sharing our experiences, leaning into our passions and collaborating with each other as we each relate to the work in deconstructing the prison industrial complex and ending mass incarceration.

Basic Principles for the Treatment of Prisoners

- 1. All prisoners shall be treated with the respect due to their inherent dignity and value as human beings.
- 2. There shall be no discrimination on the grounds of race, color, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

3. It is, however, desirable to respect the religious beliefs and cultural precepts of the group to which prisoners belong, whenever local conditions so require.

4. The responsibility of prisons for the custody of prisoners and for the protection of society against crime shall be discharged in keeping with a State's other social objectives and its fundamental responsibilities for promoting the well-being and development of all members of society.

5. Except for those limitations that are demonstrably necessitated by the fact of incarceration, all prisoners shall retain the human rights and fundamental freedoms set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and, where the State concerned is a party, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Optional Protocol thereto, as well as such other rights as are set out in other United Nations covenants.

6. All prisoners shall have the right to take part in cultural activities and education aimed at the full development of the human personality.

7. Efforts addressed to the abolition of solitary confinement as a punishment, or to the restriction of its use, should be undertaken and encouraged.

8. Conditions shall be created enabling prisoners to undertake meaning-ful remunerated employment which will facilitate their reintegration into the country's labor market and permit them to contribute to their own financial support and to that of their families.

9. Prisoners shall have access to the health services available in the country without discrimination on the grounds of their legal situation.

10. With the participation and help of the community and social institutions, and with due regard to the interests of victims, favorable conditions shall be created for the reintegration of the ex-prisoner into society under the best possible conditions.

11. The above Principles shall be applied impartially.
